The Student Body:

I am grateful for the opportunity to extend greetings to the students, faculty, and friends of Cullman High School.

My ten years at this school have been more pleasant because of my close contact with you. It is my sincere desire that through your association with your classmates, instructors, and others here on the campus, you have grown in ability to cooperate with others and have gained factual knowledge that will insure your success to your fellowman and to yourself during the years to come.

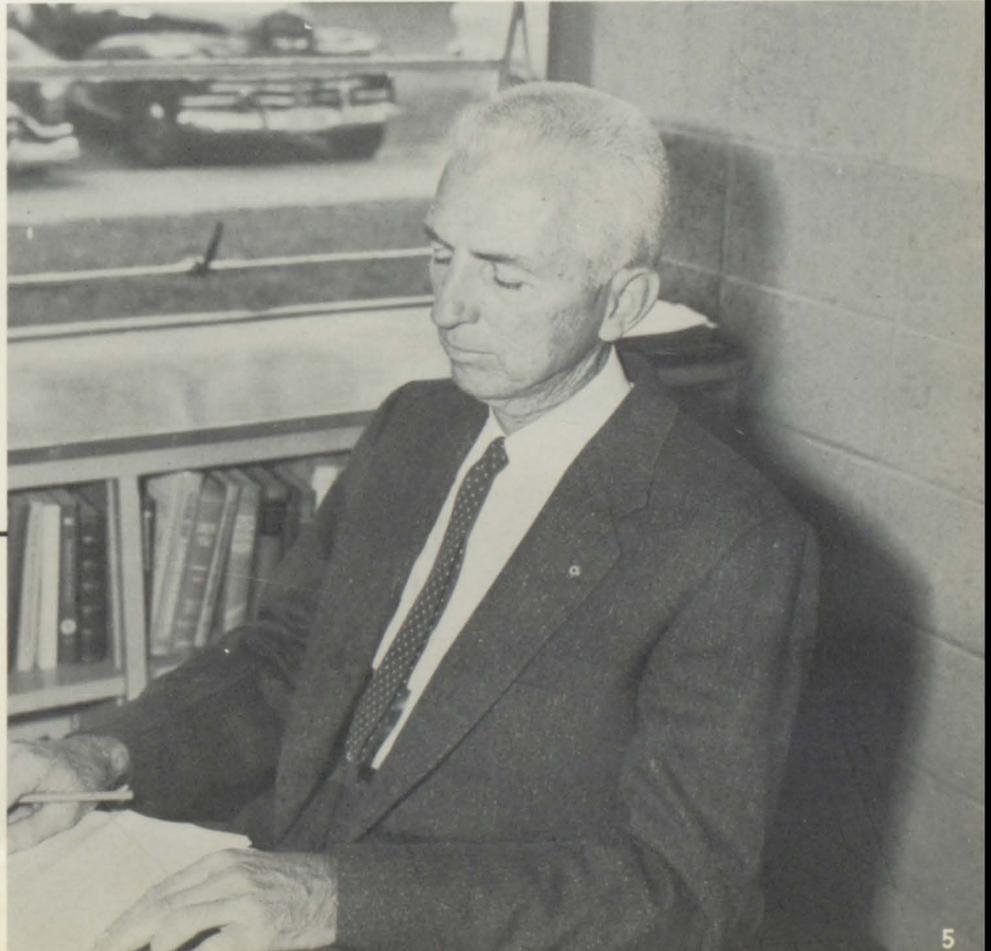

We hope conditions have been such for you that you are prepared to look ahead to a most glorious future.

Sincerely,

Allen Hyatt, Principal

DEDICATION

You the students hold the hope of the future.

You work to gain knowledge and the knowledge you gain will go with you throughout your lives.

Your dreams will become reality and your plans will be through.

You hope to climb until you reach your destiny of happiness and success.

In your hands lies the progress of tomorrow!

The doctors working to promote better health.

The scientists working to make our lives easier.

The farmers working on more and better ways of producing crops.

The teachers working to increase our knowledge.

The ministers teaching us our faith. Because we know you want to succeed.

We, the Southerner Staff, dedicate the 1959 SOUTHERNER to you, THE STUDENTS of CULLMAN HIGH SCHOOL.

The main auditorium is used for assemblies, both boys and girls physical education classes, basketball games, basketball practice for all teams from the 7th to the 12th grade, school dances and parties, and many other extracurricular activities. The building is totally inadequate for so many activities.

The third period Junior High girls P.E. class play to determine the class winners of the basketball tournament.

A project of the Student Council is to be responsible for raising of the flag each day.

Lunch finds students talking, studying, or just basking in the December sun at the end of Main Hall.

The Trophy case was built last year to provide a place for the trophies won by the school. This year the Senior High "A" basketball team added a trophy, second place in the Corner Invitational Tournament.

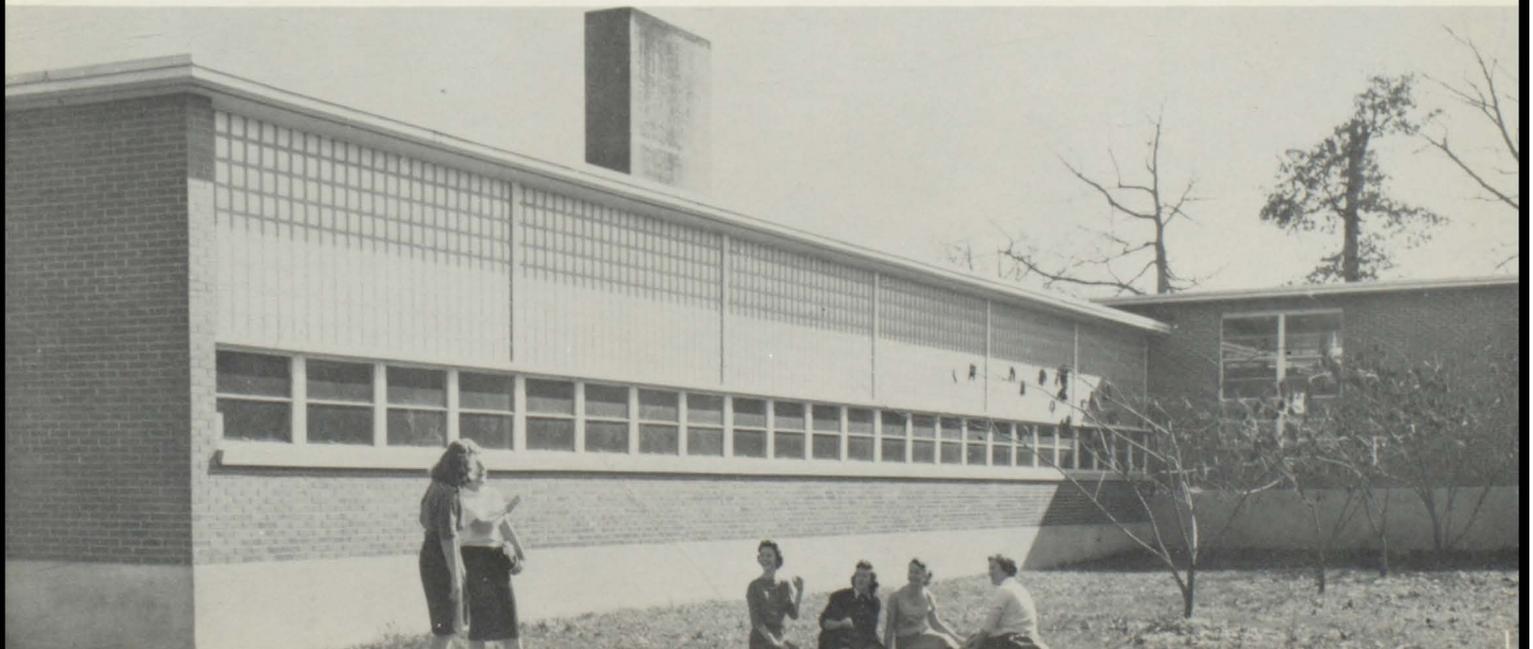

This building, housing the Physical Education classes and the Handicapped Class, was once a dwelling for the principal of the school. Before the school purchased the building it was used as a music room and for band practice. In the summer of 1955 the building was remodeled to provide a place for the handicapped children and P.E. classes.

The cat walk between the lunch room and Old Main is a popular place for loafers.

The court between the east and west wings of New Main during lunch.

Mr. James, please come and open the door to the Band Room.

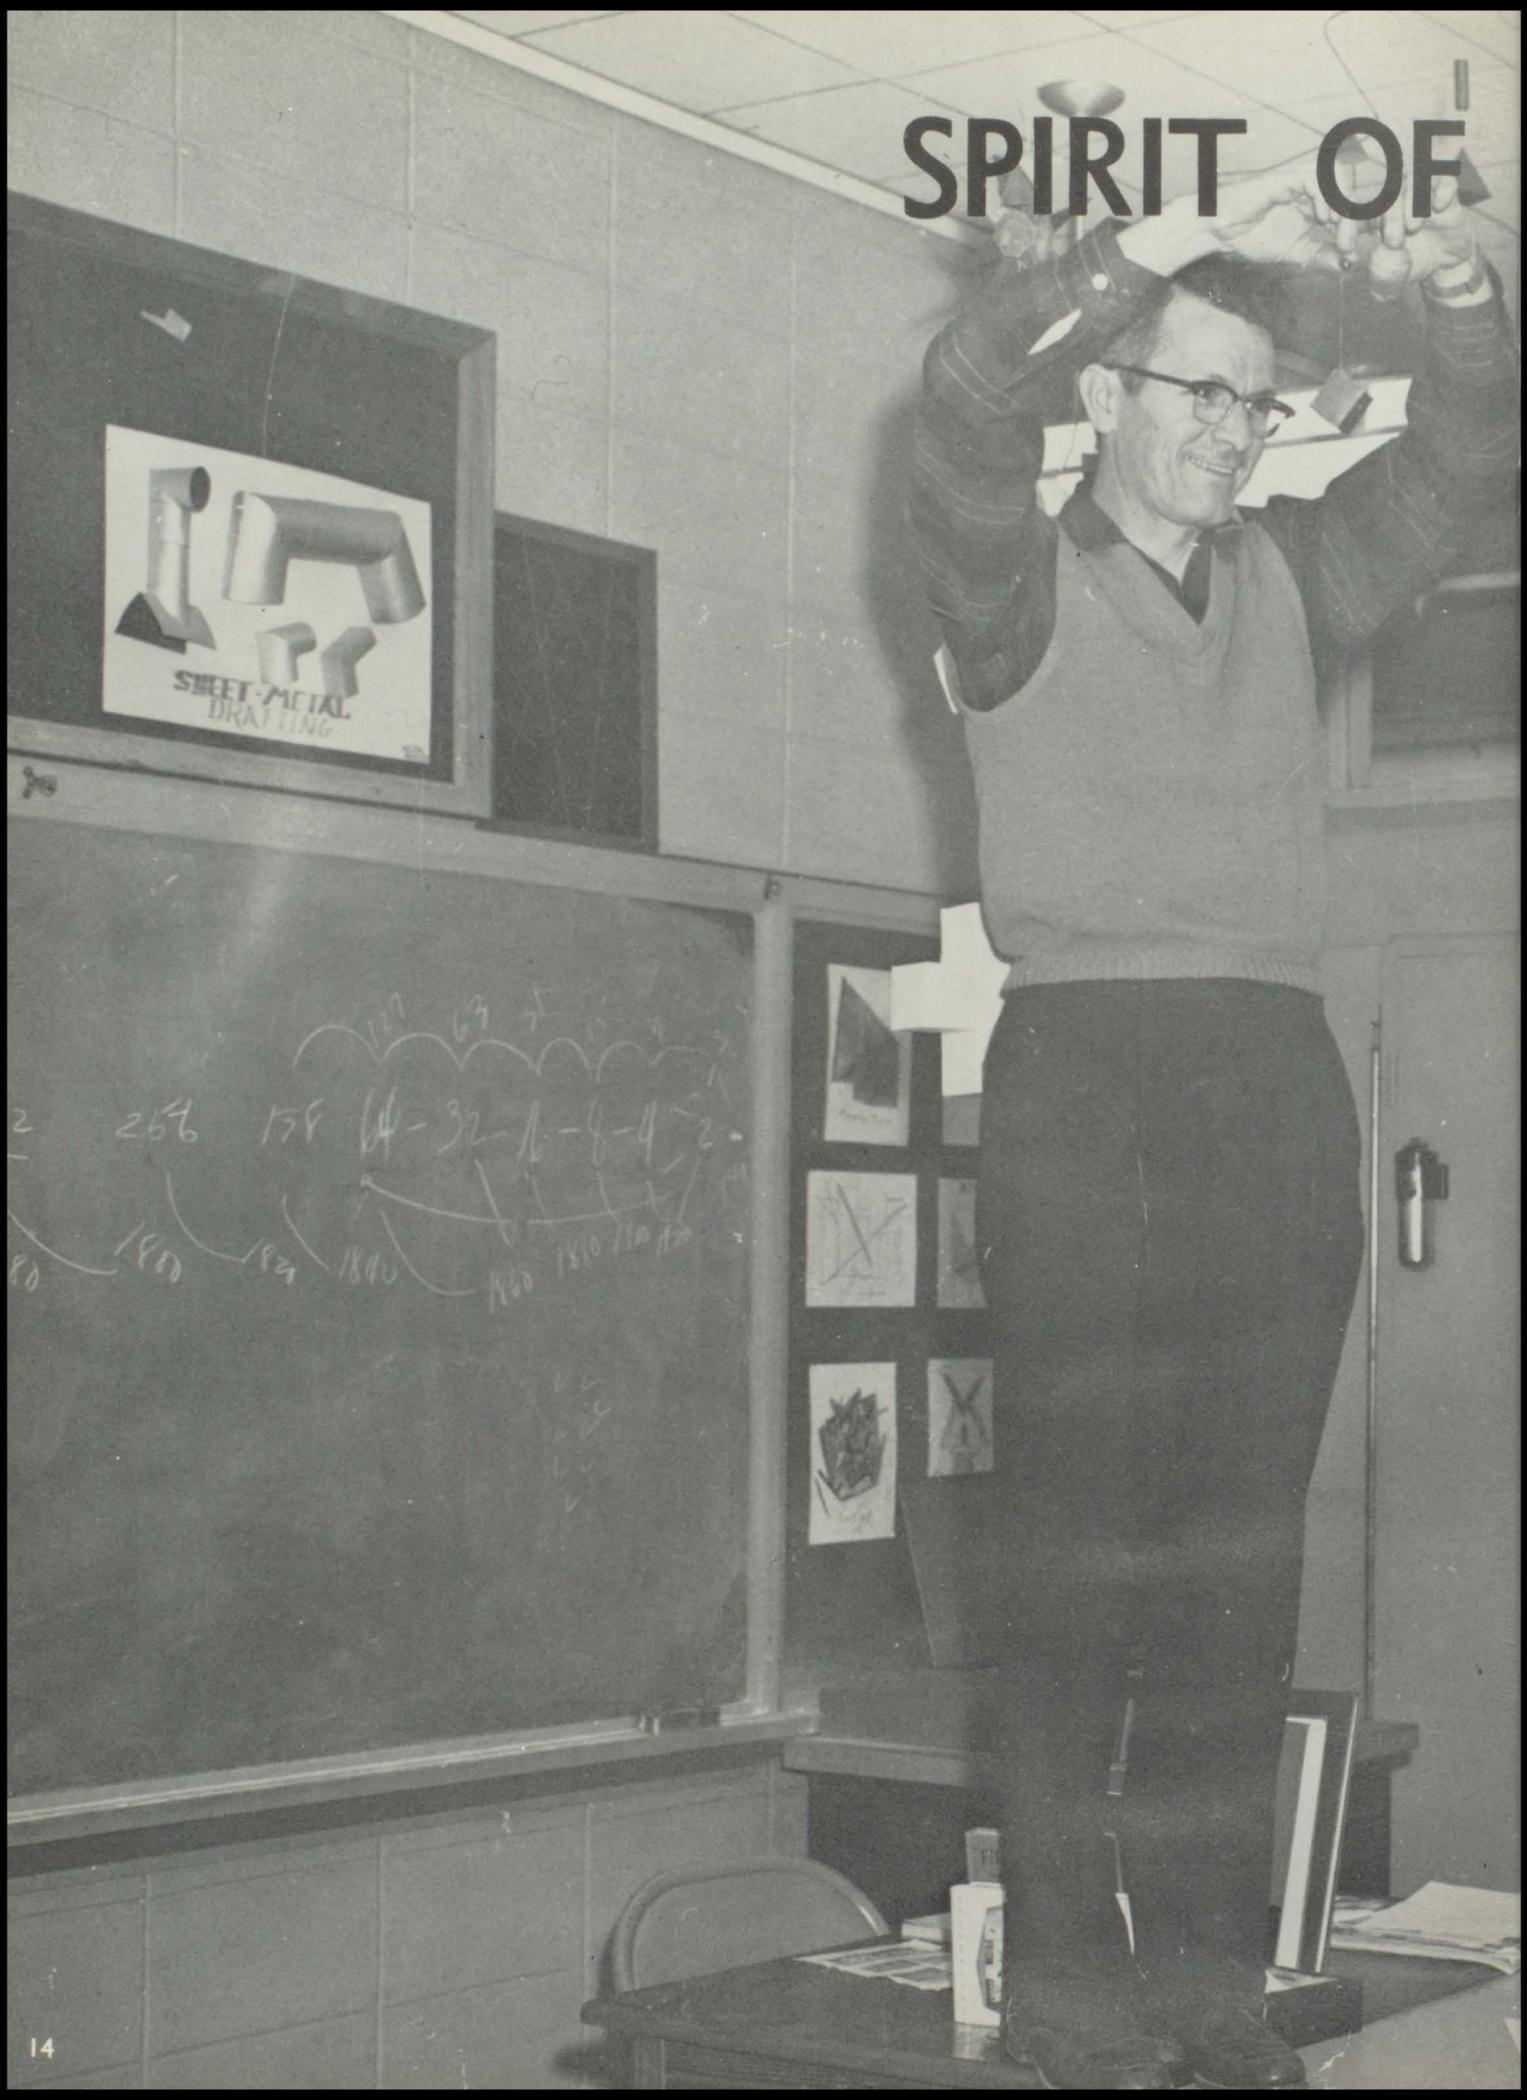

The Agricultural Building at lunch is a favorite meeting place.

THE HISTORY OF DOWLING EXTENSION

Back before 1952 Dowling Extension wasn't Dowling Extension at all but a community canning plant. Members of the community brought their vegetables and fruits there to can them. When Dowling Hall began to run over with students because of increased enrollment the old canning plant was converted into classrooms and named Dowling Extension. The seventh grade now occupies this building.

EIGHTH GRADE HOMEROOM OFFICERS

Mr. Camp's homeroom officers seem to be just "daydreaming." They are President, Anne Pruett; Vice-President, Joe Basenberg; Secretary, Gary Tillery; and Treasurer, Jackie Ratliff.

Miss Young's homeroom officers pose on the steps of Dowling Hall. They are President, Chet McClendon; Vice-President, Jimmy Eddie; Harriet Saunders, Secretary; and Joyce Butler, Treasurer.

President, Wayne Trimble; Vice-President Barry Willoughby; Secretary, Don Keller; and Treasurer, Jan Claire Land, officers in Mrs. Riley's homeroom, are just "foolin' around" the bicycle racks.

EIGHTH GRADE HOMEROOM OFFICERS

Mr. Williamson's homeroom officers gathered around the piano are President, Earl Hudson; Vice-President, Dickie Giles; Secretary, Brenda Taylor; and Treasurer, Terry Clemmons.

Mr. Harding's homeroom officers are apparently soaking up knowledge by poring over the World Book Encyclopedia. They are President, Joan McMinn; Vice-President, Leon Via; Secretary, Jan Bone; and Treasurer, Harold Jinks.

Barbara Putman, President; Nina Williams, Vice-President; Secretary, Glenda Wamp; and Charles Brown, Treasurer; are presiding officers in Mrs. Jordan's homeroom.

Because of the large number of students in the Seventh Grade, something new has been added at C. H. S. this year—a "split shift." The first shift of 106 students attends school from 8:10 a.m. till 12:16 p.m. Then at 12:16, the 111 students in the second shift begin their school day. They are dismissed at 4:52 p.m.

The curriculum for this "split shift" includes English, history, math, and science. Physical Education and study hall are not included because of lack of time.

At the end of the semester the shifts will swap places. The morning shift will become the afternoon shift and the afternoon shift the morning shift.

Although this plan has worked quite satisfactorily, we hope that in the near future C. H. S. will be enlarged sufficiently to care for the ever-increasing number of students all at once.

DIVISION

HANDICAPPED CLASS

Caught enjoying their lunch hour are: Mrs. Watson Carter, Bertha Alinda Posey, Delene Lankford, and Lemuel Hooper.

Five years ago a special class for the physically handicapped children, but the mentally capable, was established at Cullman High School. The students of school age are taught subjects the same as in other public schools. Crafts and handwork are also enjoyed by the youngsters. Mrs. Watson Carter and Mrs. Annie Nuss are the teachers. The class has an enrollment of seven students.

Marlene Chambers, Lavone Moon, and Mrs. Annie Nuss stop eating, long enough to have their picture taken.

ENGLISH

Research themes, required for the College English preparatory classes, are being looked into by Dottie Hart, Bratton Stonecypher, and Kay Keller.

Patty Patrick, Pat Scott, Terry Nicklous, and Dale Bates check on possibilities for their tenth grade English Notebooks.

Ready! Set! Go! Good luck on that Senior English exam.

LATIN AND SPEECH

Posing as Julius Caesar, Mike Ward shows off before Clem Cartron and Mary Wood in first year Latin class.

Handwriting is emphasized in Mrs. Hyatt's Ninth grade English as shown by Brenda Schuman and Imogene Tolbert.

History at C. H. S. is required in the Seventh and Eighth grades. Civics and Alabama History are taught in the Ninth. For Senior High students, World History is offered while American History is required for Juniors and Economics and Democracy are required for Seniors.

Judy Davis and Ann Livingston add the finishing touches to their seventh grade history bulletin board about the Pacific Islands.

The third period American History Class doesn't bother to look up from their work even when a picture is snapped.

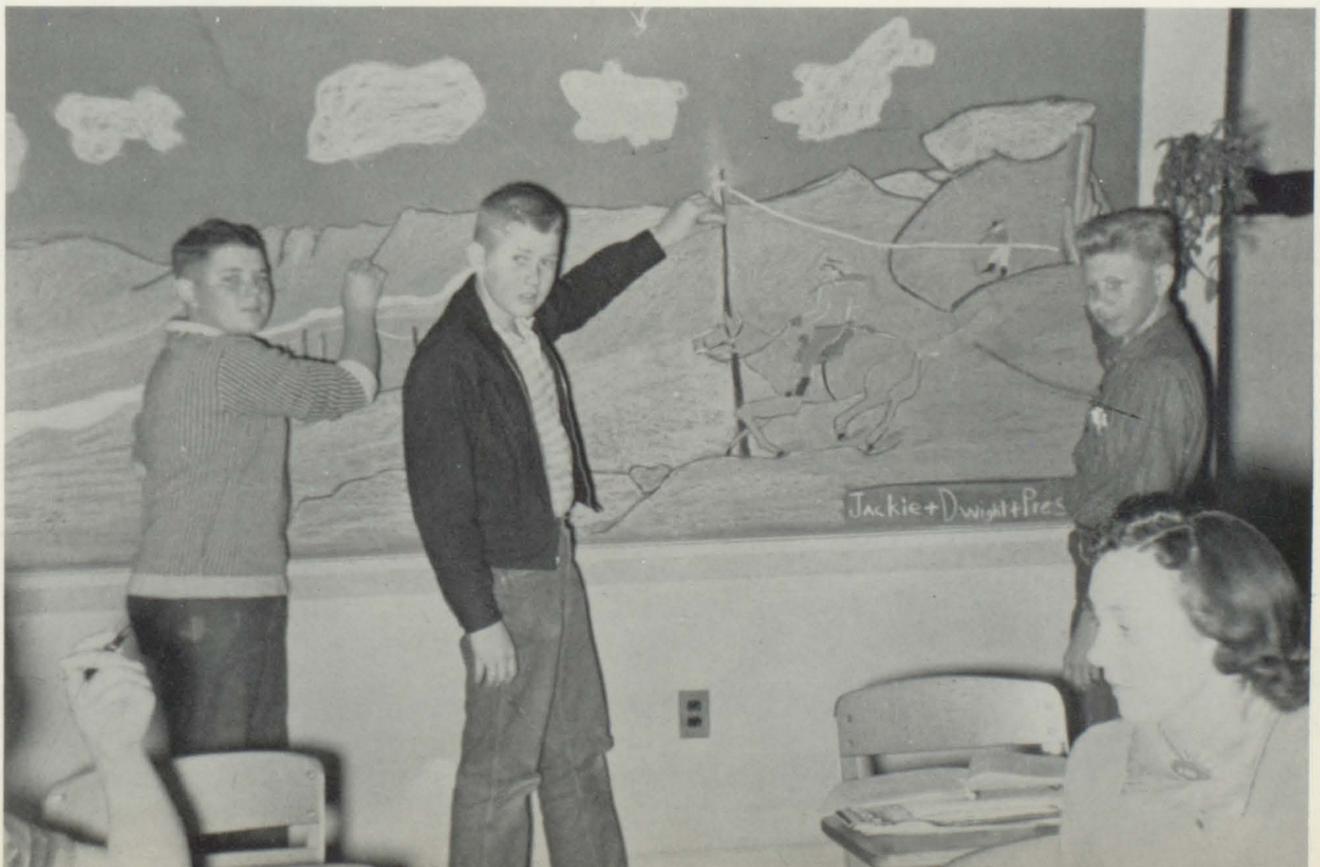

DEPARTMENT

Nina Williams, Jane Maxcy, and Dianne Aldridge busily work to complete this bulletin board for Eighth Grade History.

Days of the pony express are vividly brought back to Miss Young's History class by a blackboard drawing Preston Denson, Dwight Couch, and Jackie Whatley created.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics offers many interesting subjects for the tomorrow's homemaker. Cooking, sewing, clothing, baby care and other such topics are taught. First year home ec. is taken for two periods; second year is taken one. For two years of home ec. three credits may be received.

Cooking up some new dish to catch a man are, Katha Dean Gosset, Brenda Shannon, Sandra Griffin, and Wanda Barker.

Patsy Umphrey and Barbara Needham are working carefully on a new dress. Each girl has a special article of clothing to make during the year.

AGRICULTURE

Another agriculture project, a tool and storage shed nears completion. The workers are: Johnny Still, Joe Tubbs, and Johnny Graham.

In the agriculture workshop, Rayford Calvert and Sherrill Bailey finish their lawn chair, ag. project.

SCIENCE

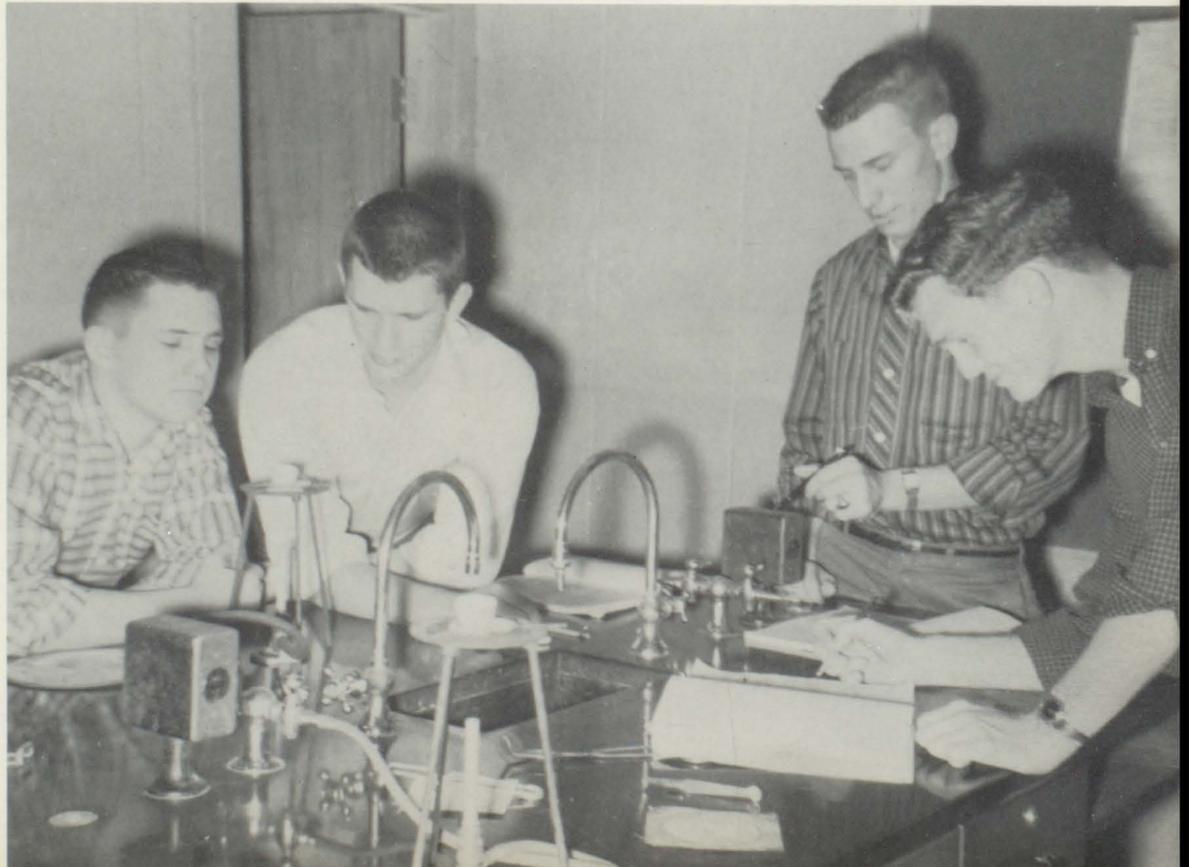

Microscopes can be very interesting. Carol Goodlett discovers this during biology class.

"What can we make for Science projects this year?" question Roger Hancock, David Moss, and Linell Jones as they look at a rocket made last year by Butch Watson.

Lab day finds Greg Hatchett, David Knight, Jimmy Tucker, and Roger Hancock running an experiment in chemistry class.

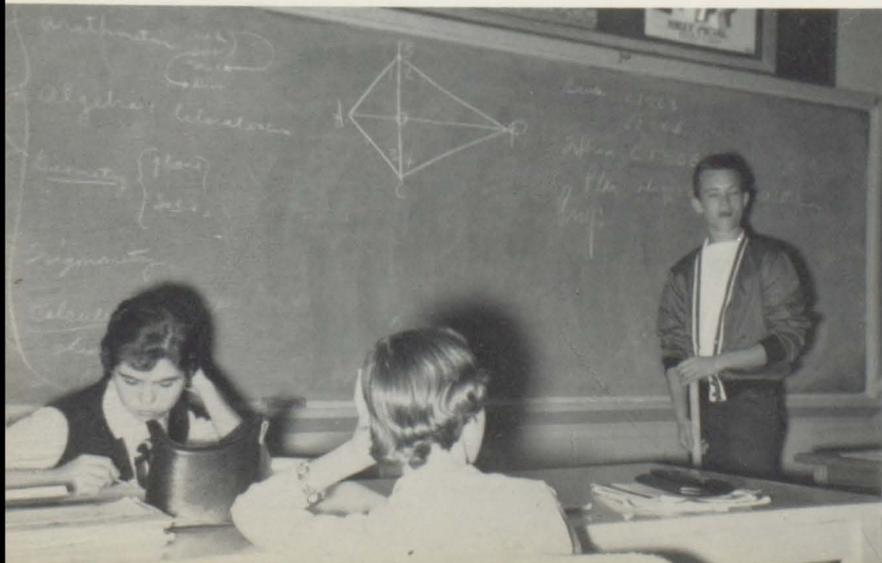

MATHEMATICS

For Junior High Mathematics is required in the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth grades. Senior High offers general math, business math, Algebra I and II, plane geometry, solid geometry and trigonometry. C. H. S. employs ten mathematics teachers.

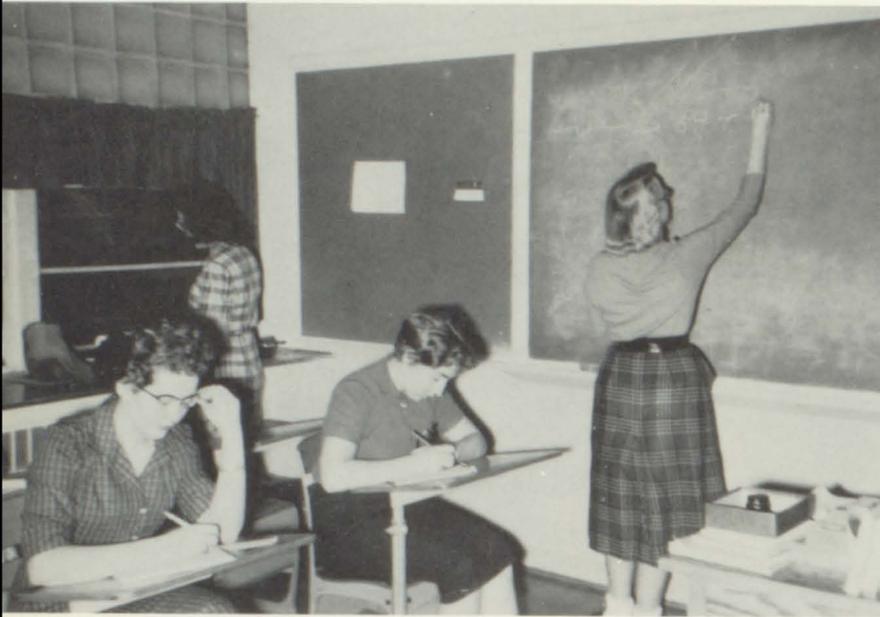

Mr. Spencer Speegle explains to his plane geometry students the characteristics of a cube

Eagerly listening to Mr. Frank Camp explain the easiest way to work an eight math problem are Lynda Allen, Jane Baker, Carol Pinkston, and Rita Bergin.

Plane geometry holds the interest of Raymond Woodard as Bette Sanders and Barbara Ward look on.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

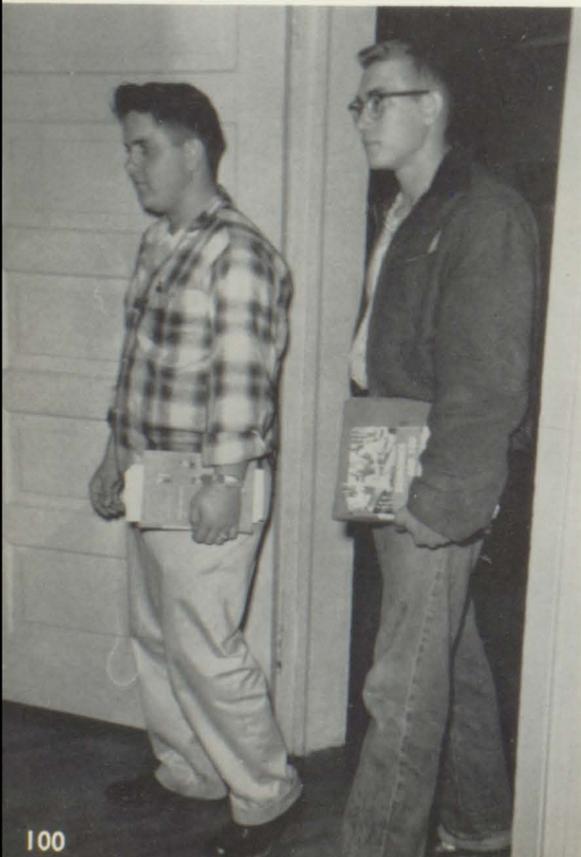

Freddie Thomason and Carolyn Glasscock study diligently as Joyce Fowler writes the shorthand assignment on the board.

Dot McGukin' is shown here operating the dictaphone. This opportunity is offered to second year typing students.

On the way to their training jobs in D.O., are Marion Weathers and Howard Brock.

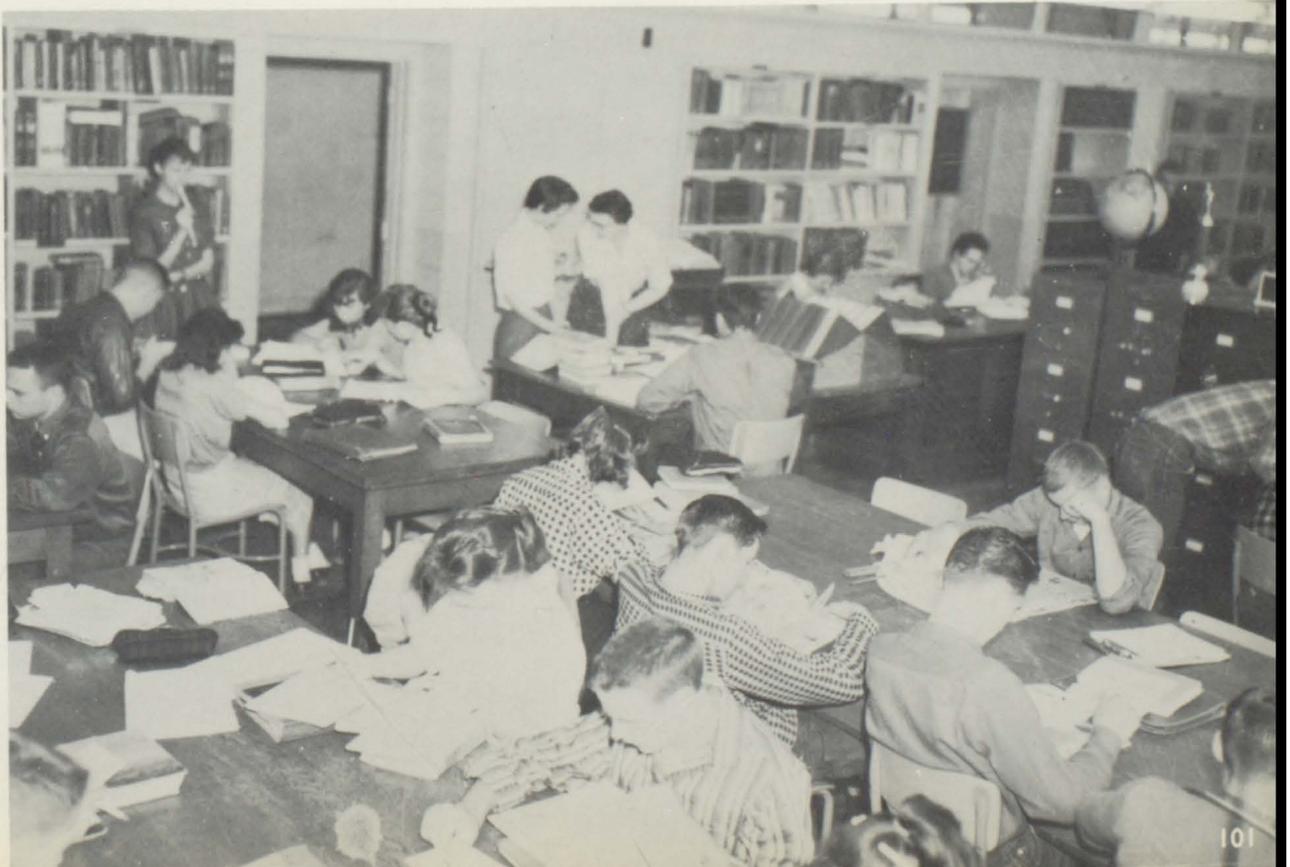

Busily engaged in their work are Typing I students Rebecca Glenn and Shirley Higerson.

SPIRIT OF ADMIRATION

F E A T U R E S

Mr. and Miss C. H. S., Jackie Hamilton and Don Brandon, were elected by popular vote of the student body.

Miss C. H. S. is Jackie Hamilton. Jackie's sweet smile, friendly ways, and sparkling personality have won honors for her throughout her high school career. Honors began to pour on Jackie in the 7th grade when she was a homecoming attendant. She was a beauty in the 8th grade, the "Most Popular" girl in Junior High in the 9th grade, a beauty in the 10th grade, and in the 11th grade, Jackie took the title of "Miss C. H. S.," the highest honor.

Don Brandon was elected Mr. "C. H. S." for 1959, is popular and well-liked. Don has endeared himself to hundreds of C. H. S. students by his wonderful personality, his fairness about everything and his ambition always to do the right thing. Courteous, polite, Don, always greeting everyone with a warm smile, participates in all the major sports at C. H. S. and still maintains the B average that he has held all through his senior high school years.

HOMECOMING

On Homecoming, October 10, former band members were invited to play with the band. Cullman lost to Huntsville with a score of 32 to 7. The game was followed with a dance sponsored by the Coca-Cola Company.

Homecoming Queen, Diane Hudson (right), is being crowned by last year's Queen, Marie Scott.

Diane, a senior, has been faithful to her Alma Mater since she entered the seventh grade. Her love for her fellow classmates and her respect for Cullman High School sets an example for other students.

In the future the 1959 students will relive in their hearts and minds how graciously Diane represented the spirit of C. H. S. at the pep rally, in the parade, and at the dance. Our queen also fought with a winning heart as she cheered the Bearcats at the football game.

FOOTBALL SPONSORS

HOMECOMING ATTENDANTS

Truly "Southern belles" as they represented the student body during the Homecoming festivities were Sharon Dahlke, Alice Chandler, Becky Glasscock, Shirley Patterson, Diane Rudson, Queen; Joy Davidson, and Barbara Putman.

C.H.S. INAUGURAL BEAUTY

GIRL'S STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Kay Keller

Nominations for girl and boy state representatives are made in Junior Class homerooms and voted on by the faculty.

Representatives go to Montgomery and visit state offices. They also make a tour of the capitol, which includes a visit to the governor's office.

Don Brandon

BOY'S STATE REPRESENTATIVE

ENGLISH CONTEST WINNERS

Dottie Hart and Joyce Fowler, local winners in the National Council of Teachers of English Essay and Grammar Contest, bone up for some more English honors. They have maintained an A average in English since they entered high school. Dottie has also maintained an A average in all subjects for the past four years.

CITIZENSHIP GIRL AND BOY

Kay Keller and Bratton Stonecypher, Good Citizenship Girl and Boy, were nominated by the Senior class and elected by the Faculty.

"HEAP BIG SMOKE—PLENTY OF FIRE!"

C. H. S. students were completely stricken with awe at the sight of the gigantic clouds of billowing smoke rolling skyward from the blazing bonfire on the athletic field during the Homecoming Game Pep Rally. The city's police force and fire department, complete with fire engines, squad cars, and screaming sirens, added to the excitement of the activities. Cullman's businessmen and parents of C. H. S. students, not to be left out of all the happenings, also rushed to the athletic field to share in the excitement. This is just another example of the boundless enthusiasm of the student body at Cullman High.

EVENTS

With tired tongues and aching feet, the C. H. S. Ad Staff enjoyed eating dinner at the All Steak after a morning of selling "Southerner" Ads.

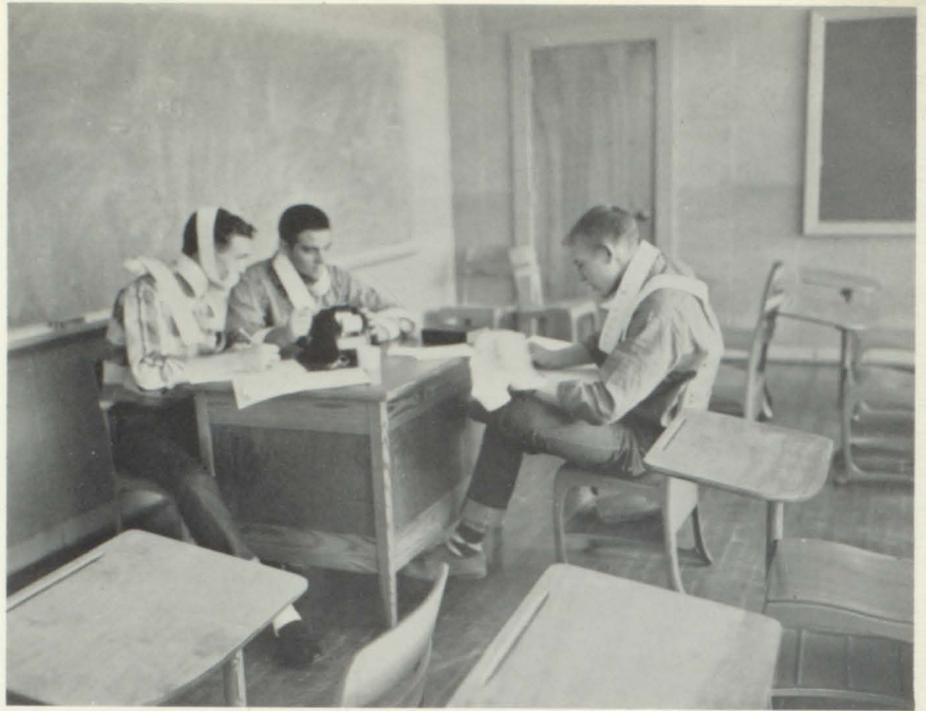

Journalism students celebrate with good-eating and merry making immediately following a "Southerner" deadline shipment.

Happy to take a break—Journalism students prepare to leave for the Alabama High School Press Conference at the University of Alabama. Those making the trip are Mary Lou Rasco, Joyce Haynes, Brenda Dunlap, Billie Marie Hammond, and Freda Brown.

All wrapped up counting votes for Who's Who elections are Roger Hancock, president of the Senior Class; Douglas Styles, reporter for the Student Council; and Don Brandon, president of the Student Council.

The camera's eye caught the excited and impatient looks of Jr. High students as they waited by the conference room to buy class pictures.

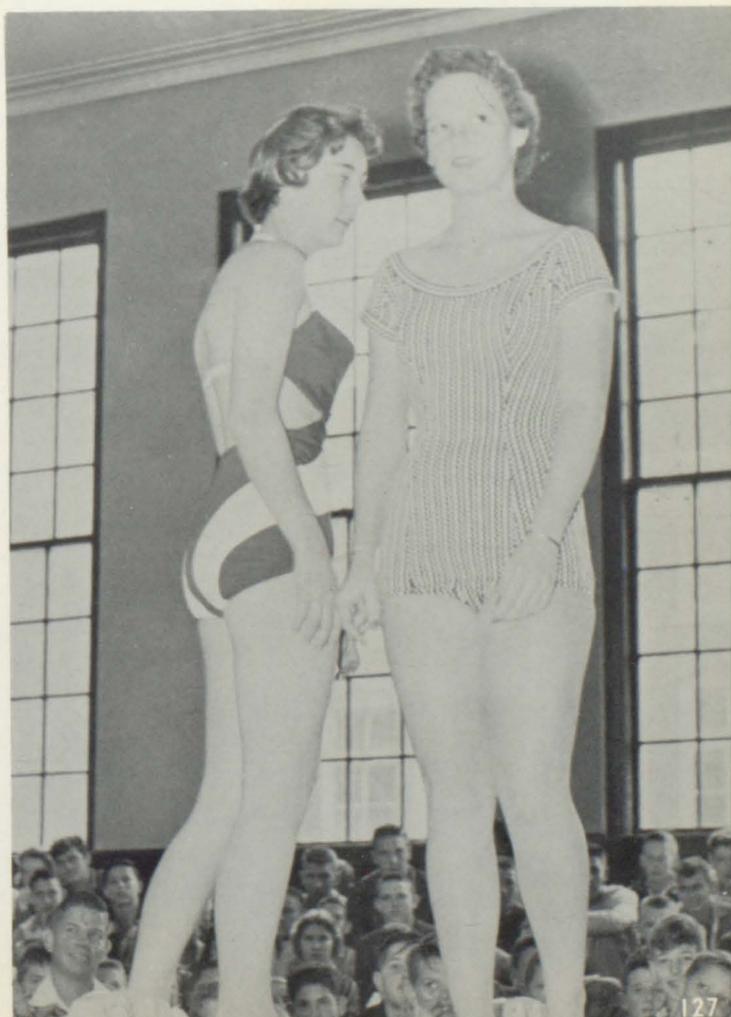

American Education Week visitors were caught by the camera before entering the cafeteria door. Visitors to C. H. S. during this time continue to increase.

THE FASHION PARADE

The Home Economics Department entertained the student body with a parade of spring and summer fashions of '59. In the top picture, Barbara Duffey models the new "fad," tailored bermudas and leotards. To the right, Dorothy Hill and Margaret Hill show the latest in the swim suit line.

C.H.S. BAND SALUTES NEW GOVERNOR

The C. H. S. Band proudly marches down Dexter Avenue of Montgomery, Alabama, while representing Cullman at the Inauguration of Governor John Patterson. Cullman's float follows the band.

"JOIN

Football parades are held on the afternoons before the first home game, the Homecoming Game, and the Hanceville game. Students entering cars in the parade are excused from fourth period class to decorate their cars.

On dismissal of school at the end of the fifth period, the parade is off. For the next few minutes, Cullman resounds with football cheers, horn-blowing, and the wail of police sirens.

"LITTLE LOST POOCH"

Becky Glasscock, Becky Garrison, Mary Ruth Kessler, Bill Drawbaugh, and Clark Keller are very interested in their new "classmate." The puppy found its way one morning to the window of Mr. Glasscock's 9th Grade Civics Class and was enthusiastically taken in. After only one day of school, the puppy "withdrew" to make its home with Ann Persall.

"TEN LITTLE INDIANS"

The "Ten little Indians," fourth period Senior high P.E. class took top honors in intramural tumbling competition. They presented an Indian love story in tumbling form, an original story by Shirley Drake. This group consisted of Shirley Drake, Alice Lane, Joanna Holmes, Dorothy Freeman, Betty Langley, Mary Evelyn Eddins, Linell Jones, Joyce Thompson, Margene Bonds, Kathy Chaffin and Jane Ann Merrill.

SHORT STORY WINNER

Mary Evelyn Holloway is the C. H. S. representative entering the "BIRMINGHAM NEWS Creative Writing Contest." Her short story is "The Order of the Rabbit Foot."

ESSAY CONTESTANTS

Students entering "The BIRMINGHAM NEWS Creative Writing Contest" with essays are Jackie Allred, with her topic, "Voting Age," Carol Goodlett, "Proper Alma Mater"; and Selma Davenport, giving her views on "Love of All, For All."

Editor of the 1959 Southerner, Howard Woodard, talks over the money proposition with Business Manager Jane Ann Merrill. Editor Woodard is in a typical pose at his desk as he directed the many phases of publishing the Southerner. Because of the lack of a regular staff photographer he also served at this capacity.

In addition to Business Manager duties, Jane Ann also edited the Ad Section.

"Who is this?" says Freda Brown, Introduction and Activities Section Editor, "Have you ever seen this person before?"

"No, I haven't," is the reply from Mary Lou Rasco, editor of the 'Highlight' and Faculty Section of the Annual.

"Why are there so many people in Cullman High?" replies Billie Marie Hammond, Class Section editor.

It's our last shipment and Oh! what worries. Carolyn Matkin, of Class Section, has this problem as she types one of her last copy sheets. Jackie Hamilton, sports section, tries to find the pictures of the co-captains that seem to be lost. Joyce Haynes, feature section, says she knows someone took her pictures because she didn't lose them.

What, no flash bulbs!
 "Well, I'm not going to let what happened to Mr. and Miss C. H. S. happen again," says Brenda Dunlap, feature section editor to Jo Ann Cates, Activities and Introduction Section Editor as they check the supplies.

Our faithful helpers from the library are Betty Dodd, Lynda Mize, Wanda Goodwin and Dot Haynes. Dot spent most of her time going to Mr. Schlosser's to pick up pictures. Betty, Lynda and Wanda took the horrible task of preparing the student index for the Annual and keeping the index file straight. They were always available for work when the staff got in a tight place.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

From this point until the end of the game it was Cullman all the way. The Bearcats scored once more before the half on a 19 yard pass from Maddox to LaVerne Savage. Again scoring for the Bearcats, Bob Humphries went 9 yards into the end zone. In the final period the Bearcats opened both guns as they scored a total of 19 points. Maddox started the quarter rolling with a 21 yard touchdown pass to Savage. One minute later the Bearcats added their second T.D. of the quarter on a pass interception by Johnny Ritcher on the 50 yard line and crossed into the end zone untouched. Maddox and Savage finished the scoring with only 20 seconds to play on a 8 yard touchdown pass play. The Bearcats made four out of six extra points. It was a great night for the Cullman Bearcats and victory was in the air.

The cheerleaders form a pyramid, a stunt they learned at cheerleader clinic.

One of the greatest thrills of the year was leading the roaring Bearcats on the field while the band played the Victory March.

PHYSICAL

The winners of the intramurals in volleyball in Senior High are: left to right standing—Marie Scott, Frances Chambers, Gwyn Herring, Delola Hinkle, and Jane Goodwin. Seated left to right are—Diane Hudson, Lawanda Hartwig, captain, and Patty Willingham.

The C. H. S. P.E. classes offer a great variety of activities. Some of the sports that students participate in during the year are swimming, softball, volleyball, basketball, soccer, and relays. Along with these sports they have a two week class of health and a week for social dancing.

In one of the Junior High tumbling classes Gail Kinney and Iris Budwig are demonstrating an angel stand.

Pat Cook, Linda Davis, Linda Gibbs, Martha Faye Gentry, and other members are working on their projects for Phy. Ed.

For two weeks the girls senior high Phy. Ed. classes worked on games for projects. Each class divided into eleven or fourteen groups according to the size of the class. Each group made four games out of things they brought from home. All the P.E. classes together made about 300 games. These games were given to needy children, to the West Elementary School, to the East Elementary School, and to the handicapped children.

HISTORY OF CULLMAN

Colonel John G. Kullmann came here in 1873 to start a colony of German immigrant farmers. Kullmann, himself a German refugee who had lost a fortune in the Dano-German war, dreamed of a thriving colony of thrifty hard-working tillers of the soil.

When Colonel Kullmann brought his fellow Germans here from Cincinnati, there were only a few other persons living in what is now Cullman County.

Because of unproductive land, early settlers had passed this area up; however after taking one look at the region Kullmann decided it was the place for his colony.

The land had been made available by the old North and South Railroad, presently L & N. The colony chose 349,000 acres along the newly completed railroad link between Birmingham and Decatur. Backed by the railroad, Kullmann brought the first settlers, which consisted of five families and a bachelor from Cincinnati in 1873.

Soon joined by other families, the newcomers started laying out their colony. They selected their town site, erected a railroad depot, a hotel, two churches, and a store. A log cabin for each family was also erected. They called their colony Cullman. In 1877 the state Legislature created a new county around Cullman, thus adding 100,000 acres. When it came to adding the county seat, Cullman had competition from a town called Gilmer, now called Hanceville. Although Hanceville was larger than Cullman, it was Cullman who won out. Given its new status, the farm colony continued to grow and Colonel Kullmann continued to bring more German immigrants to Cullman county, which by 1880 contained 6455 persons.

Before he died in 1895 at the age of 70, Colonel John G. Kullmann had brought to Cullman several thousand immigrants.

Today this county compares favorably with any county in the State and in some respects is years ahead.
