THE FAIRALA

FAIRVIEW HIGH SCHOOL
CULLMAN, ALABAMA
1961-1962

We cling to the memories of —

Fairview High, our school, where we have spent so many impressive days, working, playing, and learning together. Our school, too, where we have found inspiration, guidance, and a foundation for a better way of life.

Foreword

High school days are filled with cherished memories. Some are better than others, such as that important game you wanted so much to win, the class parties and picnics, the thrill of being a senior, and at last the wonderful feeling of accomplishment when that coveted diploma is placed in your hand.

With our school days closing, we pause to look back upon the friends and happiness we have had. Our last year has been filled with many experiences which we shall never forget. The joys, the sorrows, the hard work -- these are all parts of our memories. This year we have attempted to capture the best and most outstanding of these memories at Fairview High.

With this thought in mind, we, the 1961-62 Annual Staff, present the 1961-62 FAIRALA.

To the Seniors
We dedicate . . .

These past years have been a challenge and opportunity for each. You have been challenged by the records of past graduating classes and by the goals toward which you have been working. Opportunities have been yours to surpass records in every area - scholarship, citizenship, and leadership.

Because you have accepted these challenges and seized these opportunities, you have developed your traits of character and personality in such a way that the faculty and student body have come to look upon you as an inspiration to future graduating classes. These same qualities will enable you to accept your social environment and to make real your hopes and plans for the future, with success always as your goal.

In recognition for deeds past, and with hopes that you will continue to grow in leadership, ability, and understanding, the Fairview Annual Staff proudly dedicates to you, the Seniors of 1962, the 1961-1962 FAIRALA.

The melody of a day . . .

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal Speaks . . .

The yearbook is representative of a student body, faculty, school workers, alumni, patrons, and sponsors, whose wholehearted energies and services are devoted to the improvement and training for better social, family, and citizenship responsibilities. The personality of the student body reflects these objectives, and they are the basis for the sincere friendships formed and the fulfillment of plans one year nearer to completion, and completed by the seniors. The meanings are now deeper and the memories pleasant.

As you seniors move into the life you have planned, may you have the same satisfaction that comes from a job well done, as that which you have had from the wonderful work completed while in school.

P.T.A. Promotes Parent-School Unity

For the most effective development of the students, there must be cooperation between home and school. Parents must understand what the schools are endeavoring to do, while teachers must try to understand the problems of the students through the parents. To bring about this understanding and cooperation is one of the main aims of the Parent Teachers Association at Fairview High School.

The P.T.A. has as another of its aims to further the cause for education, the chief purpose for our parents and teachers are working together. In doing this, the P.T.A. sponsors different activities, and also, sponsors different projects. Past projects have included fluorescent lighting for four classrooms and presently are buying a deep freeze for the lunchroom. Aside from these projects, the P.T.A. has regular meetings each month during the school year with interesting programs.

Refreshments are enjoyed at each P.T.A. meeting. Here they're being served in our new lunchroom.

These, Too, Are Our Leaders . . .

Mr. J. M. Mauldin, the Assistant Principal, fulfills his position as he leads the elementary school. He also teaches a class of the sixth grade.

As Guidance Director, Mr. Jack W. Knight leads the teachers in a better classroom program of guidance.

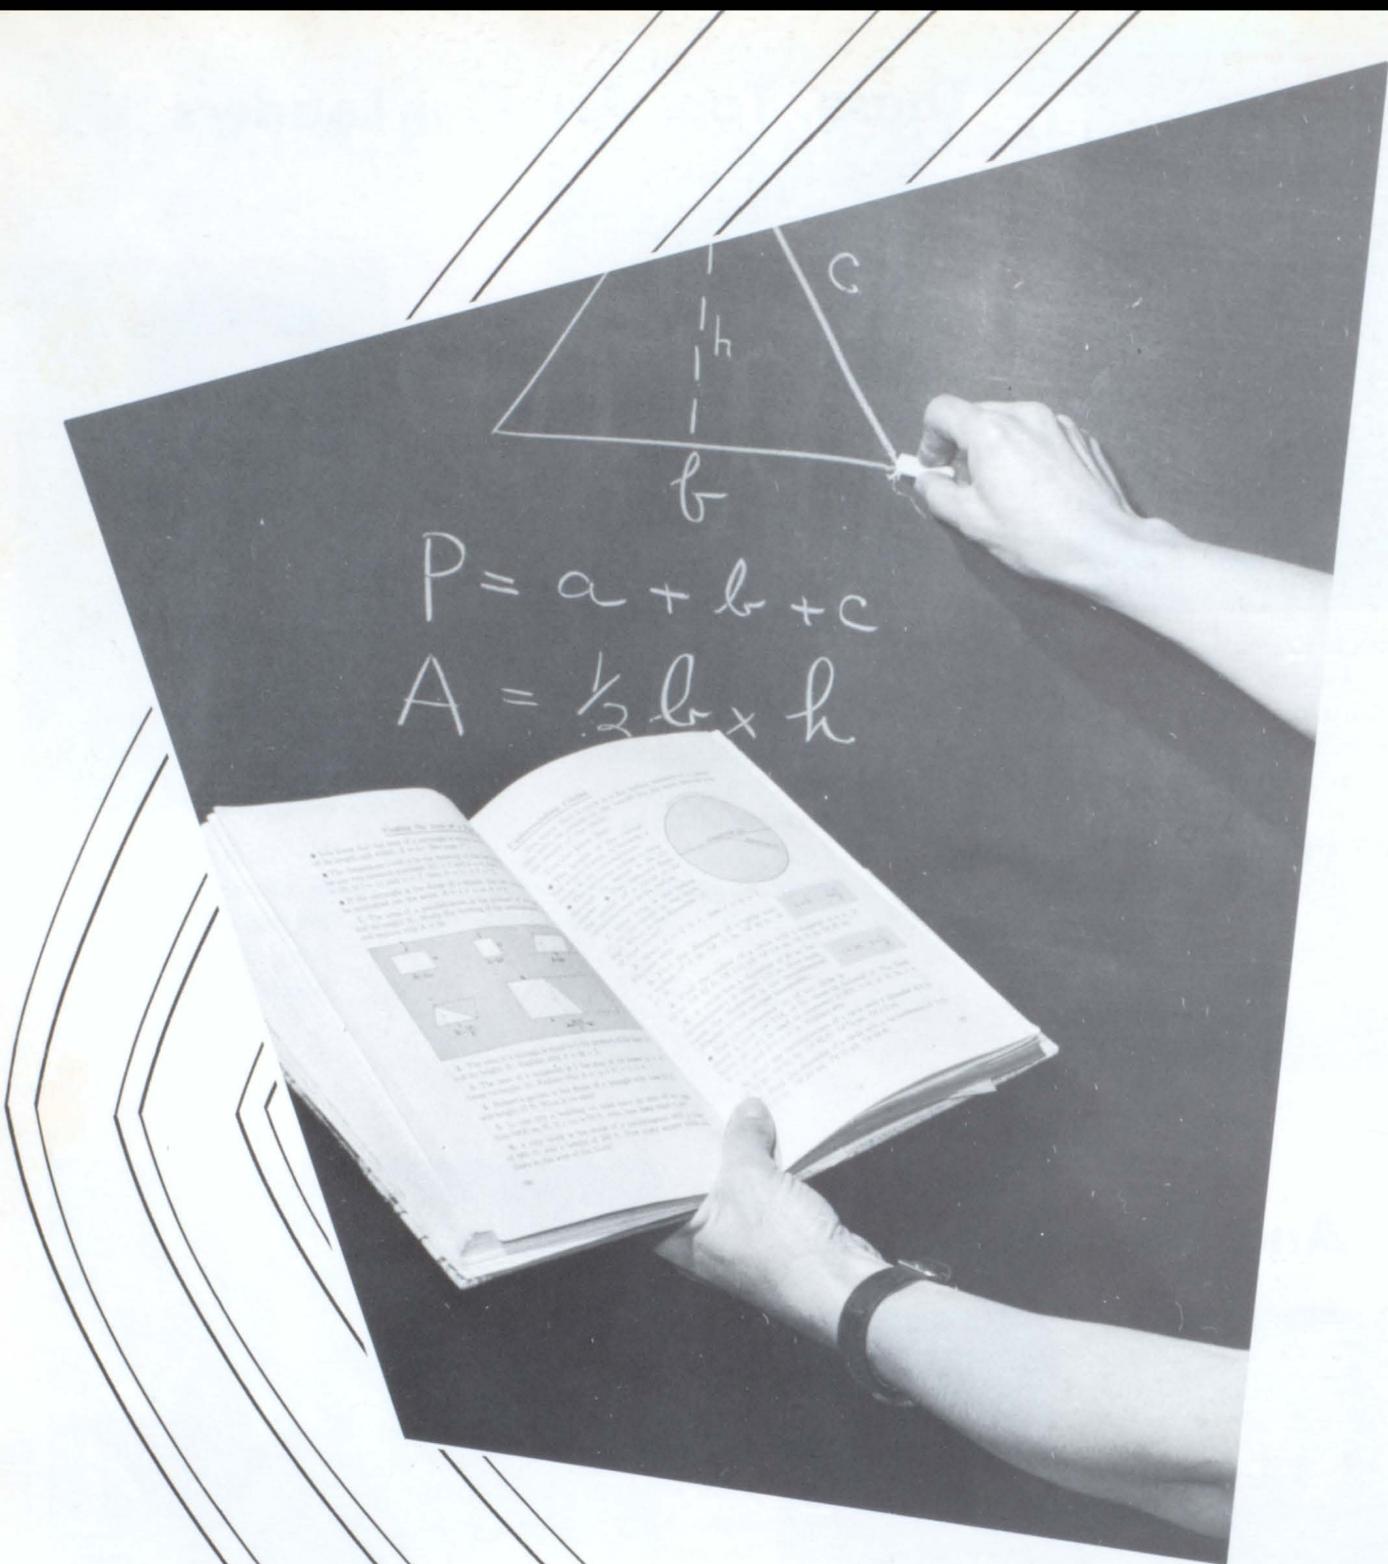

Mr. James C. Bailey, in addition to teaching commercial subjects, does the book-keeping for the school.

And Helpers . . .

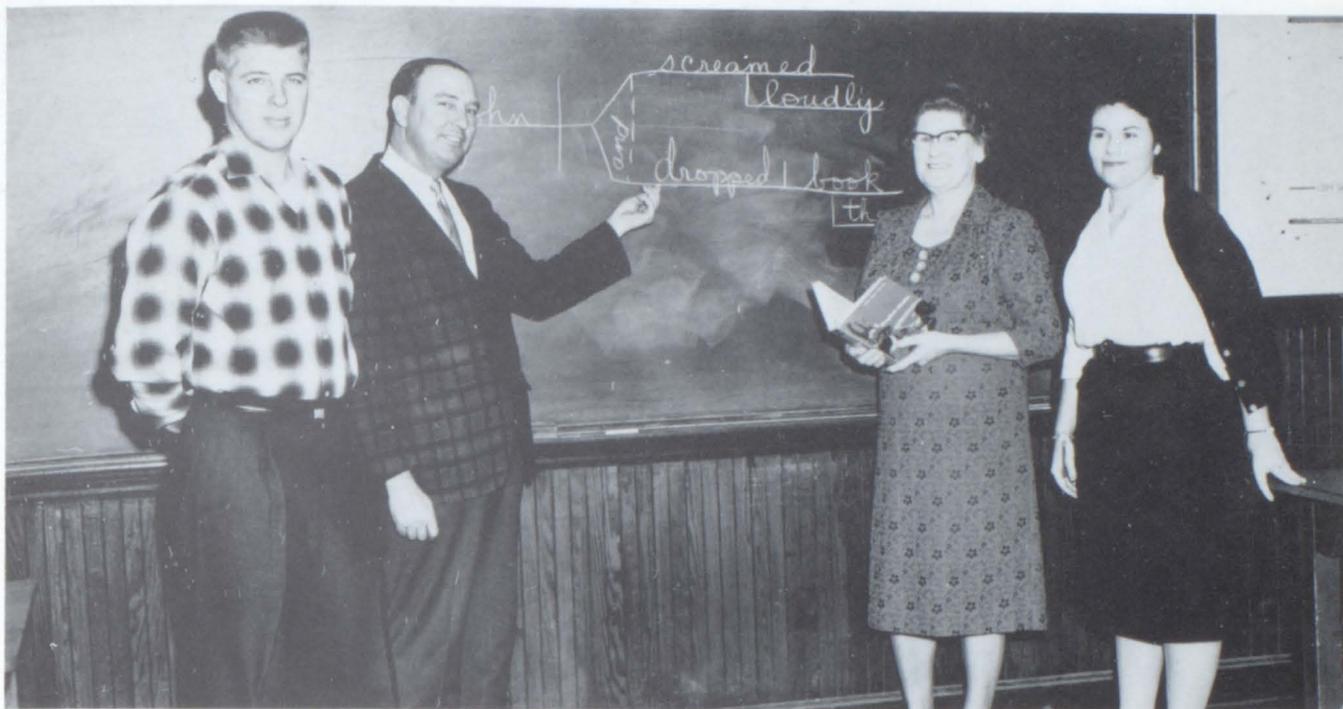

Miss Anne Andrews for the past nine years has been our secretary, an important function in the efficient operation of our school office. A typical day may include her publishing the daily bulletins and reports, selling school supplies, keeping record cards up to date, answering student questions, answering phone calls, and keeping everyone informed on the routine of the school. Often it means giving up extra time to fulfill her position.

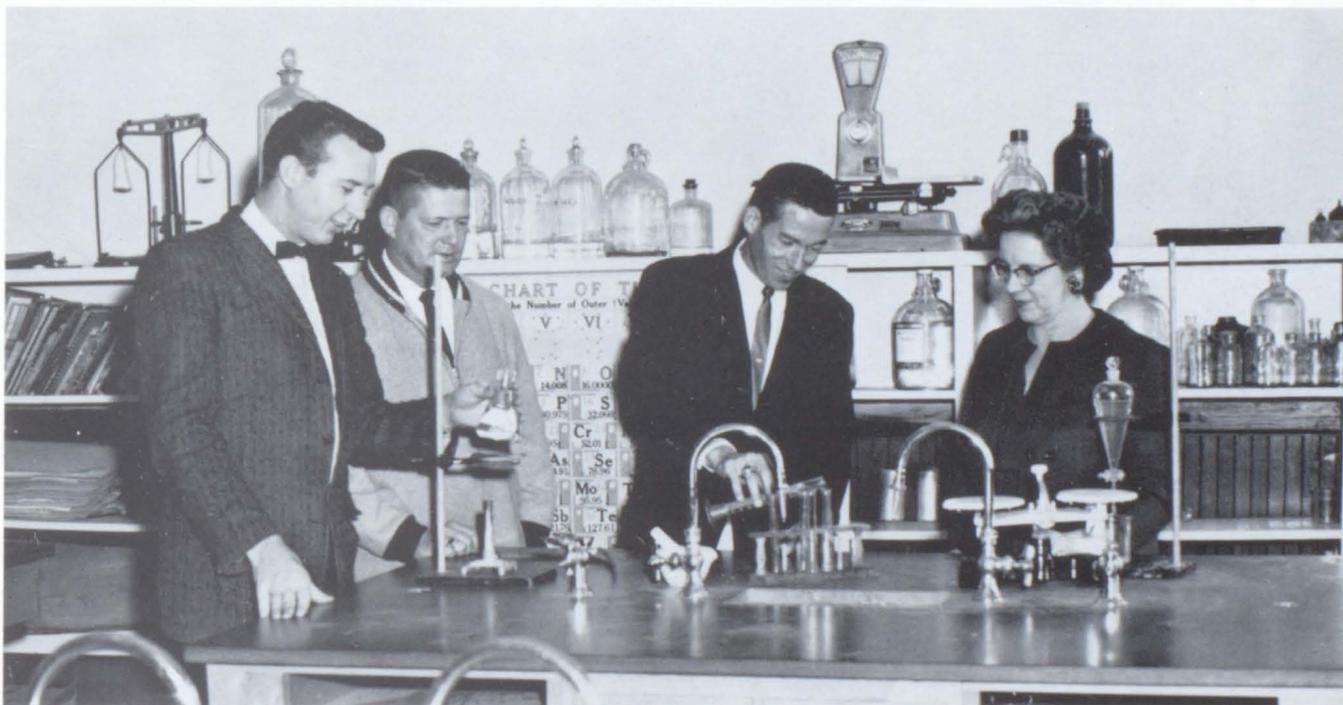

FACULTY

English Department

Our English Department has the task of teaching us to express ourselves in both speaking and writing so that we may better fulfill our responsibility to society. Those teachers in this department are Mr. James Butler, Mr. Woodie Shelton, Mrs. Edith Creel, and Mrs. Jack W. Knight.

Science Department

The Science Department which includes chemistry, biology, and general science, is very important to the high school student. In this department we have Mr. David Cummins, Mr. Willis Eddleman, Mr. Bob Guthery, and Mrs. Kate Oaks to teach subjects designed to give the student a broader knowledge of the scientific world around us, a subject becoming more important each day.

History Department

Through our History Department we gain knowledge from the past and learn to apply its teaching to today. This department is composed of Mr. James A. Lambert, Miss Nina Gay Whatley, Mrs. June Hare, and Mrs. Maude Boyter. All courses offered prepare us for better citizenship in the future.

Physical Education Department

The Physical Education Department offers to students a chance to learn about and participate in varied sports. Good health habits are also stressed here. The instructors in the P.E. Department are Mr. James Porter, Mrs. Evelyn Vaughn, and Mr. Joe Shults.

Math Department

The courses offered in the Math Department are business math, Algebra I, plane geometry, and Algebra II. The instructors of the Math Department are Mr. Jim Boyd and Mrs. Evelyn Harris.

Commercial Department

Commerce, although a department with elective courses, is well attended. Courses in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping are given by Mr. James C. Bailey and Miss Linda Sims.

Vocational Department

Home Economics, being taught by Mrs. Sadie McIllwain, gives practical information and advanced ideas in homemaking. Agriculture, as taught by Mr. B. M. Eddleman, prepares boys for a future in farming. In both subjects, taught in the vocational department, the students are given a chance to learn by actual experience.

Guidance

The Guidance Director, Mr. Jack W. Knight, helps the student in many varied ways. He heads the testing program, helps seniors find jobs and colleges, and counsels with personal and school problems.

Library

The library is one of the busiest places in school. The school librarian, Miss Jimmie Williams, helps young people to become skillful users of the library.

Elementary Teachers

Every builder knows the importance of a foundation in a house. The same is true for education. The job of providing this foundation belongs to our staff of elementary teachers. Pictured, FIRST ROW, left to right: Mrs. Irene Crow and Miss Mary Ann Evans. SECOND ROW: Mr. J. M. Mauldin, Miss Orena Whatley, Miss Myra Head, and Mrs. Willene Thompson. THIRD ROW: Mrs. Estelle Maynard and Mrs. Lillian Hedgecock. FOURTH ROW: Mrs. Annie Sue Cooley.

Non-Instructional Personnel . . .

Cafeteria Staff

Our faithful cafeteria staff stays busy from 7:00 A.M. until after lunch each school day. Their friendly ways and faces are a welcome sight to most of the students each day. Mrs. Ann Matthews serves as the lunchroom manager. Mr. Homer Veal is the assistant manager. STANDING, left to right are, Mrs. Kathleen Eddleman, Mrs. Lela Creel, Mrs. Eloise Andrews, Mrs. Marie Cummings, Mr. H. T. Veal, Mrs. Ann Matthews, Mrs. Rachel Nolen, Mrs. Edna Phillips, and Mrs. Tressie Boyd.

Custodian and Staff

Unsung hero - This could well describe our hard-working, friendly custodian, Mr. Hubert Phillips. He deserves a great deal of credit for keeping our school in such fine condition. He has as his helpers Butch Andrews, Leldon Eddleman, James Creel, Julian Oaks, Harold Brock, and Pete Chambers. Mr. Phillips and his helpers are called upon all during the year for various things, and they are always reliable and willing to help in whatever way possible.

Miss Fairala

CONNIE ANDREWS

Connie Andrews was elected as Miss Fairala by the Journalism Staff. This honor was awarded Connie because of her dedicated service and co-operative attitude shown while serving as editor of the classes section of the yearbook.

Miss F.H.S.

GAIL GARRETT

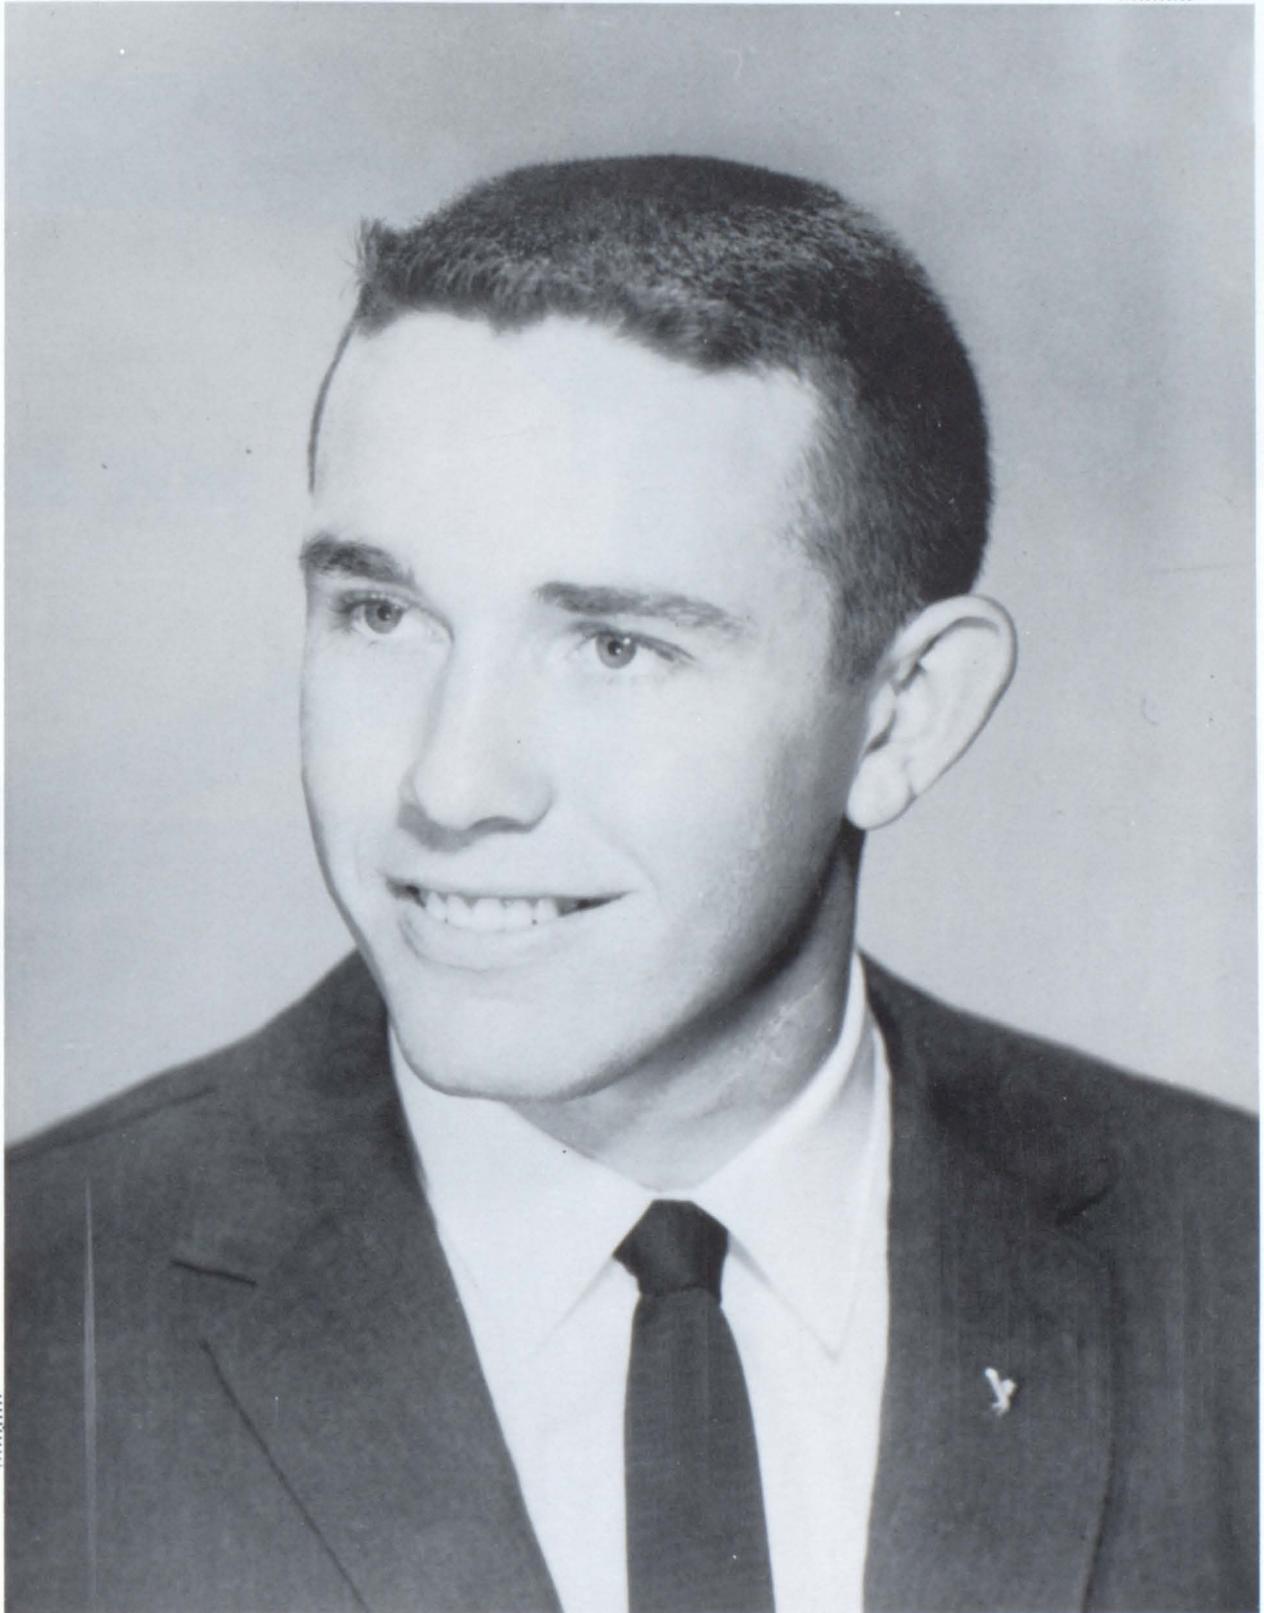

Miss F.H.S. is the girl whom the student body elected as contributing the most service to F.H.S. Gail Garrett won this election on the first ballot after all the candidates were presented to the student body in a special assembly.

Mr. F.H.S.

DWIGHT BENEFIELD

Dwight Benefield was chosen for this honor by the student body from a field of twelve candidates. This title corresponds to that of Miss F.H.S. After nominations were made by the homerooms, the final election took place on December 22.

Harvest Royalty

The crowning of the kings and queens highlighted the week long Harvest Carnival in October. To receive the crown and honor of reigning over the Harvest Court, each king and queen raised more money than any other couple in the contest from their division of school.

Each grade in school chose a boy and girl to represent that grade in the Harvest Carnival. At the close of the carnival the elementary grades, junior high school, and senior high school were represented by a king and queen.

Suzanne Sellars and Dell Yarbrough, first graders, were crowned prince and princess of the elementary grades.

Linda Mitchell and Don Ridgeway from the seventh grade were crowned as Junior High King and Queen. Charlotte Farmer and Ronald Thompson, tenth graders, represented the senior high school.

The total amount of money raised by the entire student body was eighteen hundred dollars.

JUDY REYNOLDS

Judy Reynolds was chosen to represent Fairview as Fair Queen in the annual beauty contest sponsored by the Lions Club. Judy and four other girls were presented to the student body in a special assembly and were judged for beauty, personality, and poise. In the final contest at the Cullman County Fair, Judy was chosen by the other contestants to receive the Miss Congeniality Award.

Homecoming 1961

Highlighting the half-time activities of Homecoming at Fairview on December 8, 1961, was the crowning of Queen Virginia Goodlett by the president of the student body, Philip Vaughn. Virginia was escorted by Jimmy Parrish.

Each Homecoming attendant and escort represented a club. They were as follows: Sandra Moore (Journalism Staff) and Eudon Bates, Patsy Turner (Library Club) and Dennis Bennefield (not pictured), Linda Bradley (Forensic League) and Gary Reid, Wynona Gambrell (Basketball) and Dwight Benefield, Diane White (4-H Club) and Tommy Plunkett, Iris Guthrie (F.H.A.) and Philip Vaughn, Pat Wesley (F.F.A.) and Huel Carter, Gail Garrett (National Honor Society) and Doug Helms, Ann Persall (Glee Club) and Jimmy Fowler (not pictured). Queen Virginia represented the Thespian Society.

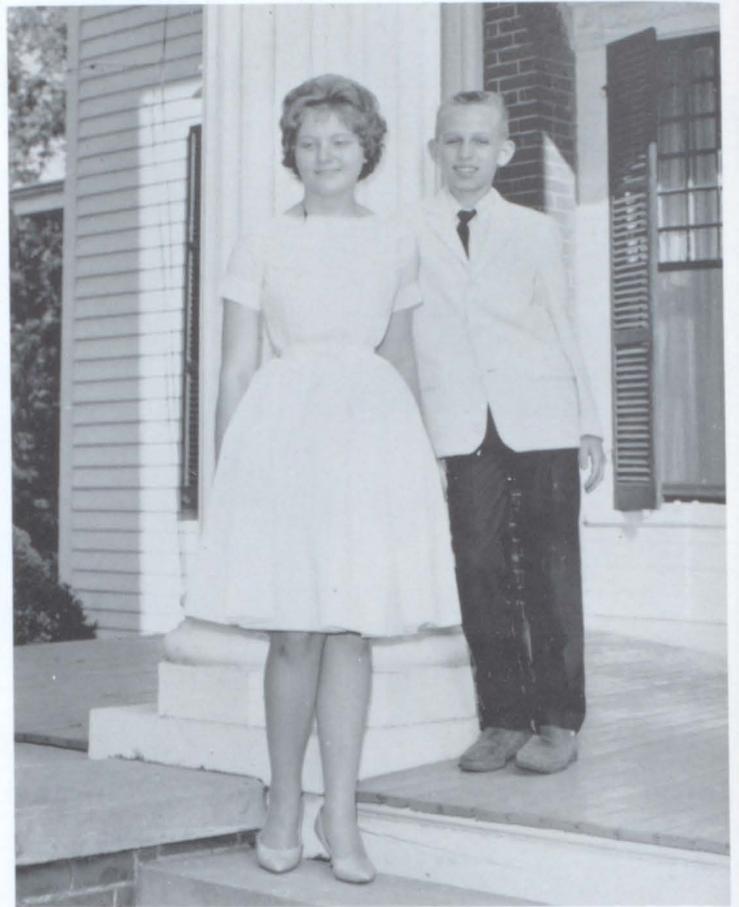

Homecoming ended with many happy faces as the Aggies gained an overwhelming victory over Douglas.

Student Honors

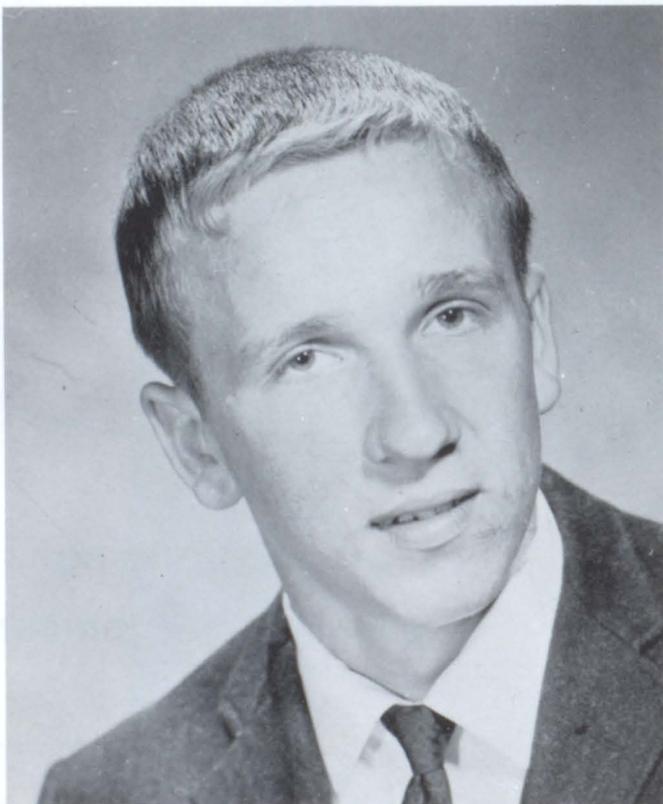

Each year a senior girl is awarded the honor of DAR Good Citizenship, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Gail Garrett received this title which was based on school and community citizenship and scholarship.

Jimmy Fowler was chosen Sportsman of the Year by members of the basketball team. This title was given him on ability and sportsmanship shown for the past season. Jimmy has held the position of guard on the team for three consecutive years.

Billie Jean Phillips was chosen Basketball Sweetheart by the basketball team. Her beaming personality and experience as cheerleader were important factors in the result of the election.

Jerry Wright, Kenneth Ray, and Carson Redding were chosen the most outstanding members of the Fairview chapter of the Future Farmers of America. The choice was based on their fine work in agriculture and their participation in F.F.A. work.

Madus Leathers received a silver pen for her outstanding work in bookkeeping and accounting. She was awarded this pen for her high scholastic average in that class.

Receiving a medal for the best typist for 1961 was Sandra Moore. She was presented this Achievement of Merit Award by the Underwood Typewriter Company.

Pat Wesley received the scholarship presented annually by the Sacred Heart College to each high school in Cullman County. This scholarship will be renewable each year if Pat maintains a high scholastic average in college.

At the commencement exercises Iris presented the welcome address and Judy gave the farewell address.

A highlight of Iris's address was: "However much we have come short of what we should have accomplished, we have run a race and gained a prize."

ORGANIZATIONS

As usual, President, Philip Vaughn; Sponsor, Miss Nina Gay Whatley; Secretary, Connie Andrews; Vice-President, Dwight Benefield; and Treasurer, Brenda Randolph, are busy balancing the 1961-62 budget.

Student Council Promotes Leadership and Understanding

As election time nears, we find Geneva Fine, Fay Drake, Diane White, and Roddy Moody, the Election Committee, putting forth their best efforts for successful elections at Fairview. Among these are the Student Council elections, and other elections which arise during the school year.

Although its task is never a light one, the Student Council is continually undertaking new projects to better school life at Fairview. The 1961-62 projects included the purchasing of a new movie projector and the purchasing of books, valued at $500, for the school library. Here, the Movie Committee, Connie Andrews, Bill Moody, Mary Jo Latham, Ruth Franklin, and Mike Smith are preparing to show a new film.

Students at Fairview learn about representative government through experience. The Student Council, composed of student-elected officers, and the classroom representatives, together do a commendable job of helping to co-ordinate school activities.

The publicity and Special Events Committee, Jo Ann Holcomb, Linda Turner, Pat Bailey, Jessie Nolan, Dwight Benefield, and Mary Dean Miller, publicize all Student Council activities and special events.

Working industriously on the Welfare Committee are Gary Reid, Bonnie Sartin, and Linda Hinkle. The Red Cross Campaign is one of their main projects.

Jo Ann Lands, Judy King, and Sandra Thomas (not pictured) are on the Morning Watch Committee, which sponsors a devotional program each Wednesday

Planning the assemblies for the year were Tommy Plunkett, Linda Helms, Pamela Harris, and Dwight Benefield.

Responsible for keeping the buildings and grounds attractive and safe are Julian Oaks, Pete Chambers, and Judy Latham of the Buildings, Grounds, and Safety Committee.

Keeping the budget in balance is the objective of the Budget and Finance Committee including Raymond Huddleston, Brenda Randolph, and Sandra Adams. The budget for 1961-62 was $1008.00.

Our Sponsor, Mrs. Knight, willingly explains to the staff how each page in the annual should have a duplicate in the dummy copy, which is to remain here at school.

Philip Vaughn, Sports Editor, explains to Donald Lewis, Assistant Classes and Cartoons Editor, how to run the mimeograph machine so that it will produce clear and attractive papers.

J o u r n a l i s m

Judy Reynolds and Virginia Goodlett, Editor of the Annual and Paper Staffs respectively, explain

To anyone passing room 9 during the year, it seemed impossible to bring any kind of order out of the confusion. Pictures all over the tables, floor, chairs; copy sheets in the process of being laid out; pencils and pens working furiously; eleven voices babbling simultaneously; above all the noise, Mrs. Knight reminding us that the deadline was nearing. This was the Fairala Staff and the Journalism Room.

Overcoming some setbacks, the Fairala Staff added some new features to the book that to have an interesting yearbook or paper, you must keep up to date with current events.

and worked hard to make this the best yearbook yet.

Nervous breakdowns and mental collapses followed the last shipment of the annual! It was hard work. But in the end, the staff forgot the nerve-racking babble, the almost-unmet deadline, the rush, the hurry - and remembered only the hours spent with friends; helping to make a book worth of bearing the title of the 1962 FAIRALA.

Joyce Williams, Assistant Activities Editor, hands Carol Teichmiller, Assistant Features Editor, one of the many records that the staff must keep.

Sandra Moore, Business Manager, is often seen typing business forms and letters for the staff. Assisting Sandra is Sandra Pearson (not pictured).

Ad Staff Sales Reach Highest Ever

Our ad sales this year reached its highest since the staff was created. Our first sales hit above the $800 mark, a gain over last year's sales. The sales were also good because we gained a new variety of patrons whose ads were larger and more interesting.

The Ad Staff was comprised solely of outstanding seniors chosen by the Fairala Staff and the members of the Journalism Staff. These members worked as hard as they could all day to help pay for publishing the FAIRALA.

Future Homemakers of America Have a Successful Year . . .

The Future Homemakers of America have been truly successful this year in carrying out their many varied projects. These included promoting friendlier relations abroad and to increase the number of dining suites in the Home Economics Department.

Among the various activities of the club, the girls enjoyed the annual F.H.A. banquet, assembly, Hobo Day, selling cook books, initiation, and Christmas party.

Pictured above are four members of the F.H.A. taking an active part in helping prepare for the annual banquet. The girls are shown making program books for those who attended the banquet.

Launch Many New Projects

Those in F.H.A. have learned and practiced the arts of home management, sewing, and cooking . . . The girls and their sponsor, Mrs. Sadie McIllwain, have made the 1961-62 F.H.A. successful.

One of the projects of the 1961-62 F.H.A. was the dinette sets shown above. Mrs. McIllwain is demonstrating the proper setting of a table to the girls.

National Honor Society

Character, scholarship, leadership, service, these four principles are upheld and encouraged by the National Honor Society. The first basis for eligibility, as a member of the Society, is to be in senior high and to maintain an A- average. The members are then selected by the faculty on this basis, and the other principles are character, leadership, and service. Being a member of the National Honor Society is truly a high and worthy honor.

This year's project was to furnish fluorescent lights for the chemistry and typing rooms. In order to raise sufficient funds for this project, the Society sponsored a concession stand at ball games and a Hobo Day, when all members worked to raise their share.

Through working to promote higher ideals in campus life by encouraging high scholarship, by promoting and developing leadership, the National Honor Society exemplifies its last principle by showing true service to our school.

Mr. Bob G. Guthrie, sponsor, gives his time and understanding to the betterment of the National Honor Society at Fairview.

Here Wayne Tomlin, Iris Guthrie, Judy Reynolds, and Gail Garrett are making posters to announce National Honor Society Week and its purpose.

Huel Carter, Photographer; Linda Bradley, Sec.; Jerry Nix, Vice-Pres.; Charlie Shults, Pres.; Janice Farley, Scribe; Mrs. Kate Oaks, Sponsor; Raymond Huddleston, Treas.; and Johnny Benefield, Publicity Dir., serve as officers for 1962.

Forensic League

The National Forensic League, an honor society for speakers, promotes participation in debating, public speaking, and other phases of the field of speech. Membership is based upon a point system. When the required number of points is acquired by a speaker with scholastic attainment and the qualities of leadership and high morals, he may be considered for membership. By acting as a goal for Fairview's speech students, it helps to build the standards of good speaking in the school.

OFFICERS

President - - - - - BILLY JOHN WHITE
 Vice-President - - - - - JIMMY FOWLER
 Secretary - - - - - JO ANN LANDS
 Treasurer - - - - - HUEL CARTER
 Sponsor - - - - - MRS. KATE OAKS

Charles Shults, Janice Farley, and Jerry Nix have been the outstanding Forensic members in the field of speech.

A group of active Thespian and Forensic members applaud Jerry Nix, as he finishes an oration.

"ACT WELL YOUR PART;
