FAIRVIEW W

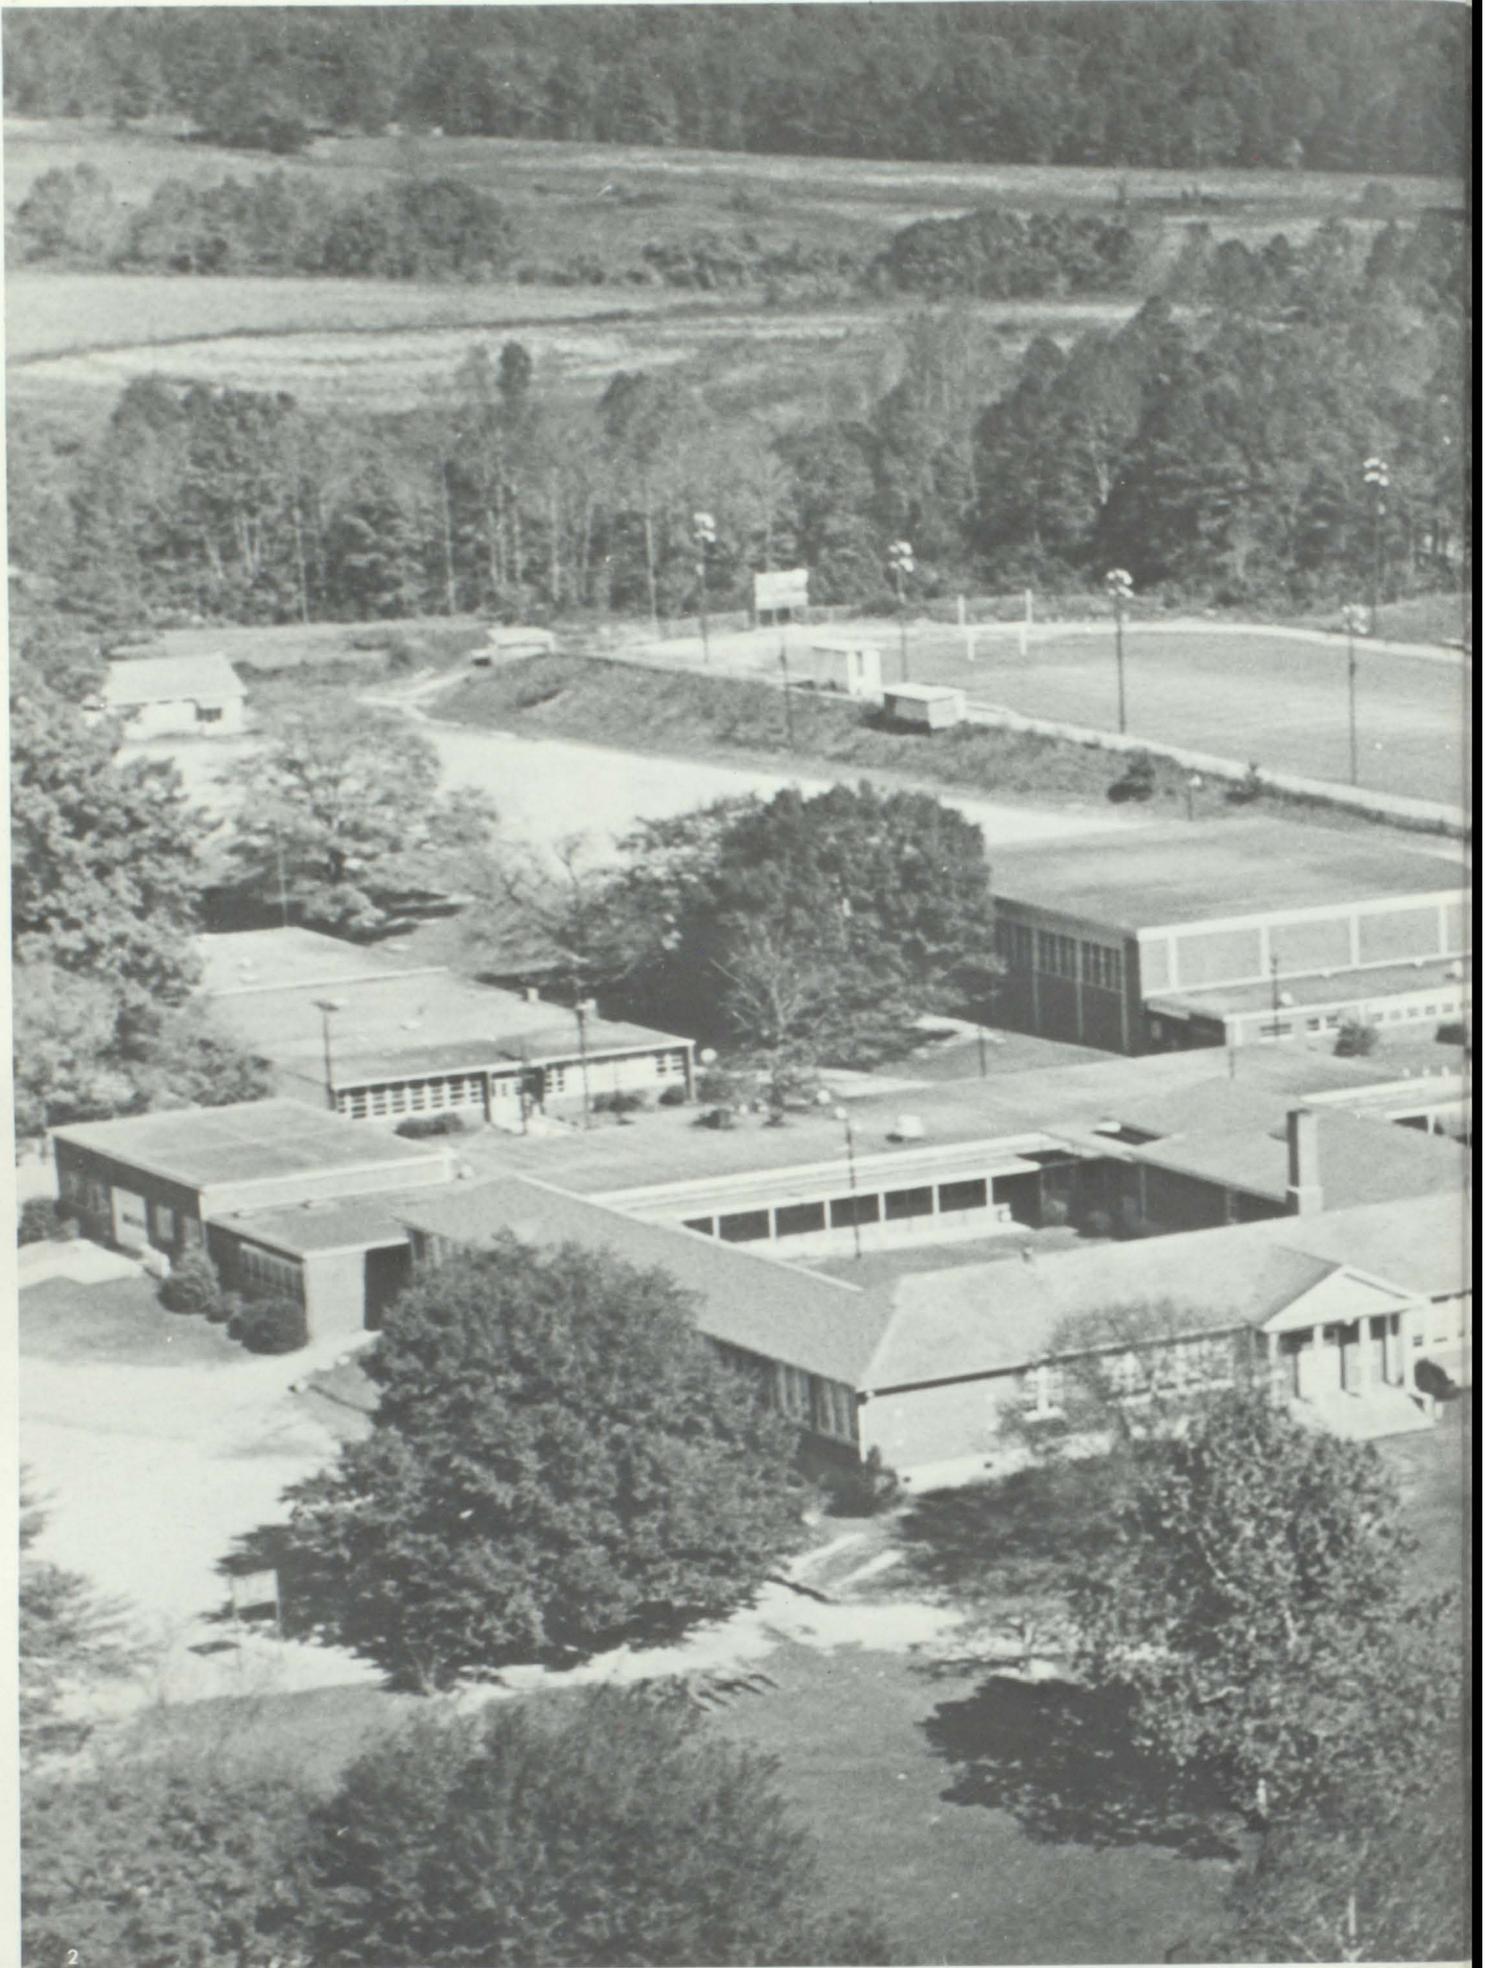

SCHOOL

A black and white photograph of a rose bush. A large, light-colored rose is in full bloom, positioned in the center-right of the frame. Several buds are visible, some open and some closed. The leaves are dark and dense, creating a textured background. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on the petals and deep shadows in the foliage.

A Special Thank-You

Mr. D. M. Eddleman is a teacher sincerely dedicated to his job. He is truly concerned about the students and willing to be of assistance in any possible way. He deserves thanks for his invaluable help so freely given in numerous programs such as the Junior-Senior Prom, and the Miss Fairala Pageant. But mainly, he deserves appreciation for his interest in Fairview School.

The Principal's Message

As we near the completion of another school year, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the faculty, students, and community of Fairview for the cooperation and help I have received this year.

I would like to congratulate the Seniors on the completion of another phase of your life, and I would like to challenge you to even greater things in the future.

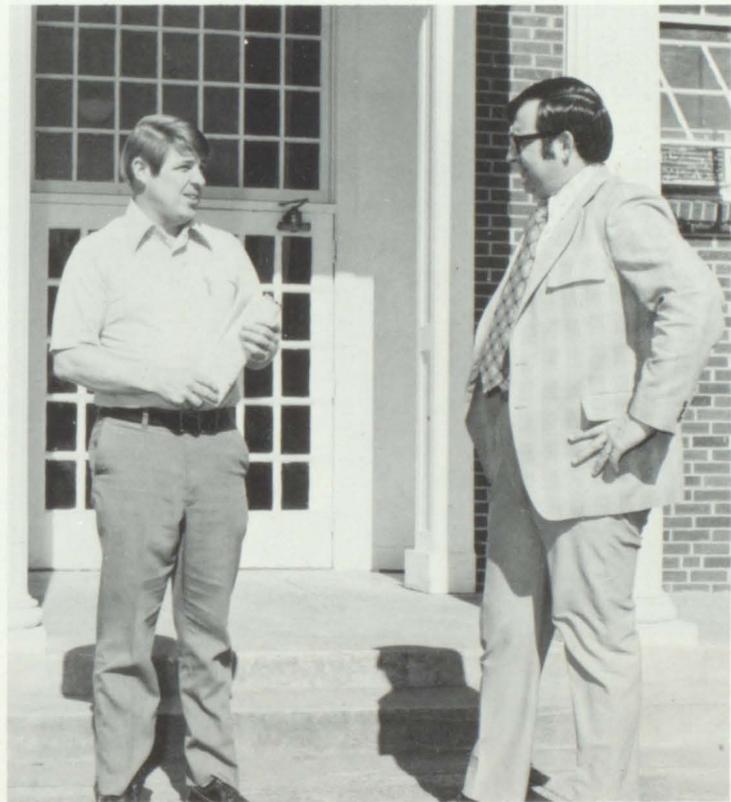

Good luck and may you always have God's blessings.

Donald W. Jones

STUDENT LIFE
The Road Goes Ever On

“A Growing Awareness . . . ”

The student undergoes many startling transitions during his growth from the small, secure world of elementary school to the vastness of high school. Along with these changes he finds many . . .

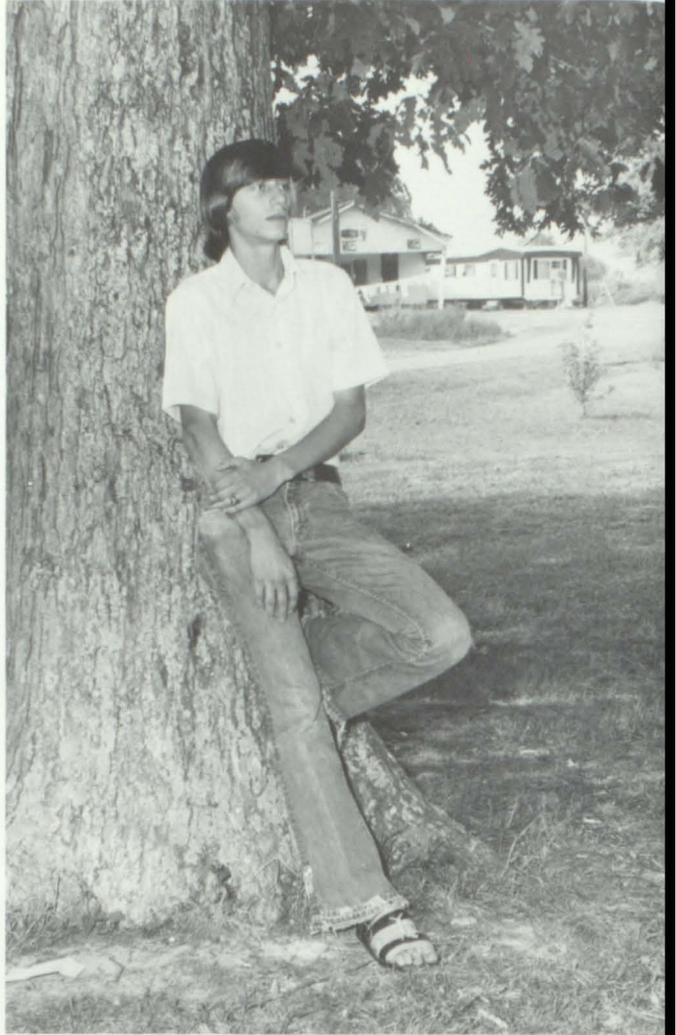

... New acquaintances, strange faces at first, that later blend into a more relaxed circle of friends. But even with friends ...

... the student is still an individual who must find himself somehow,
and then express these findings ...

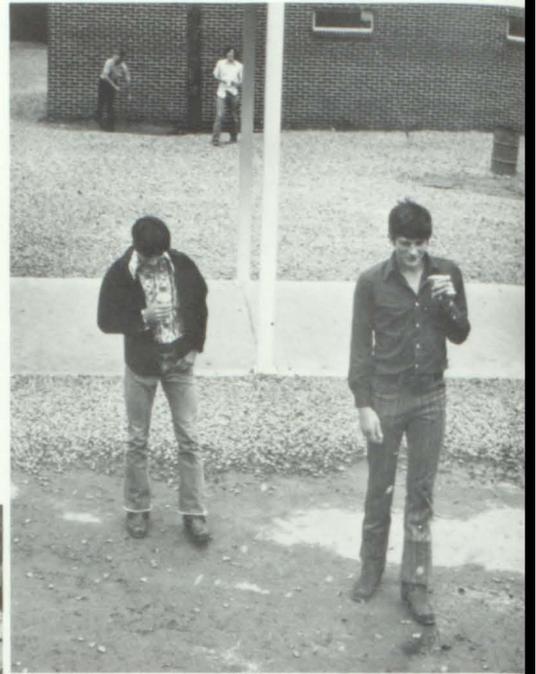

... to express himself there must be a retreat at times from the pressures of studies, friends, and the day to day routine of life.

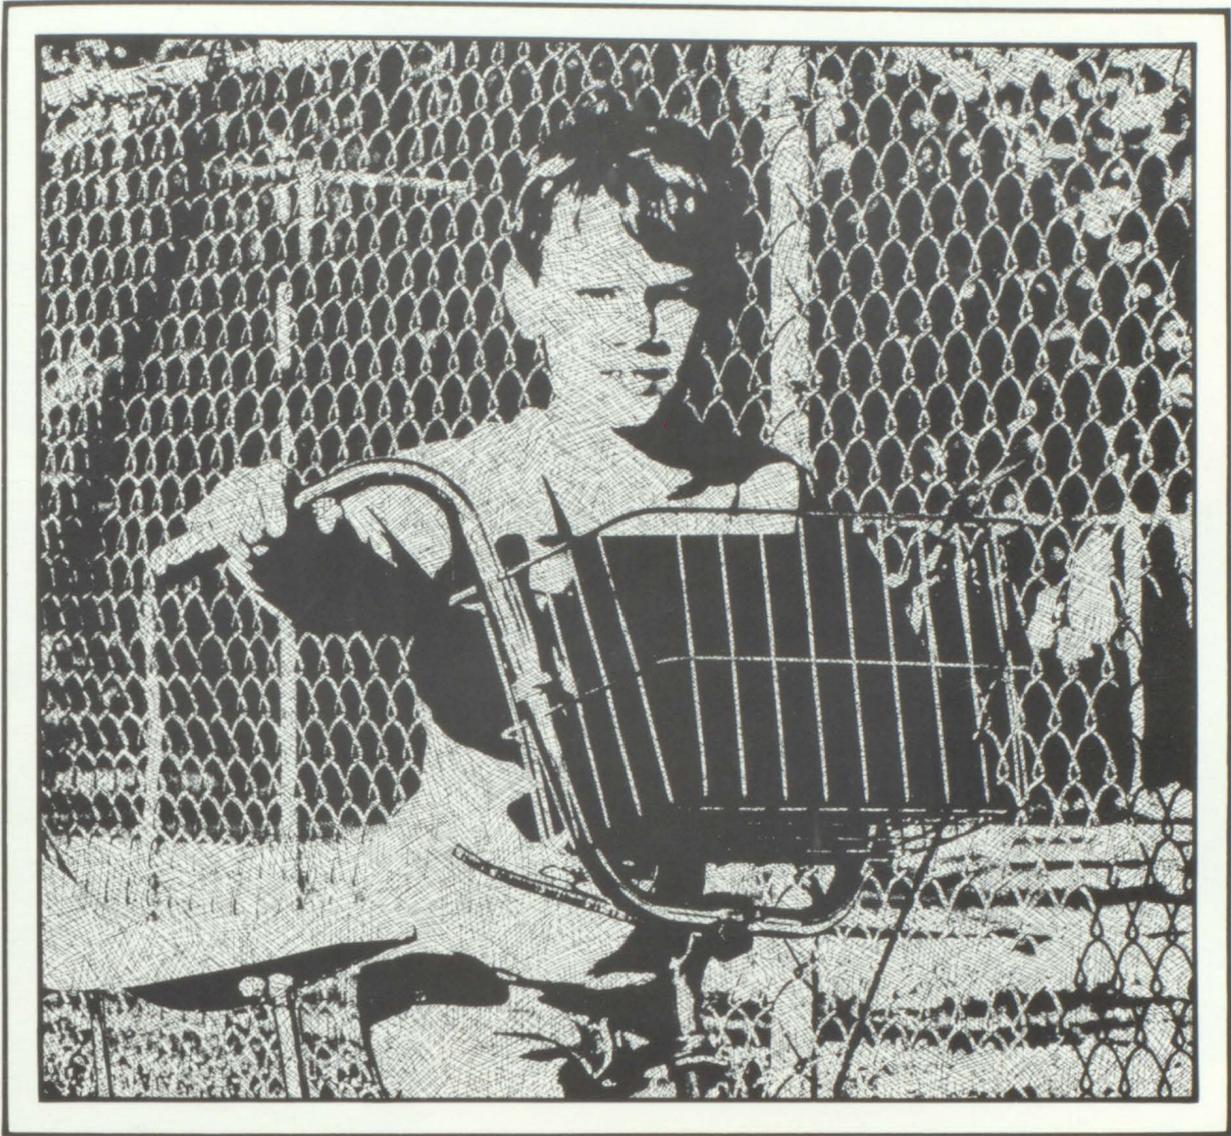

With Companionship . . .

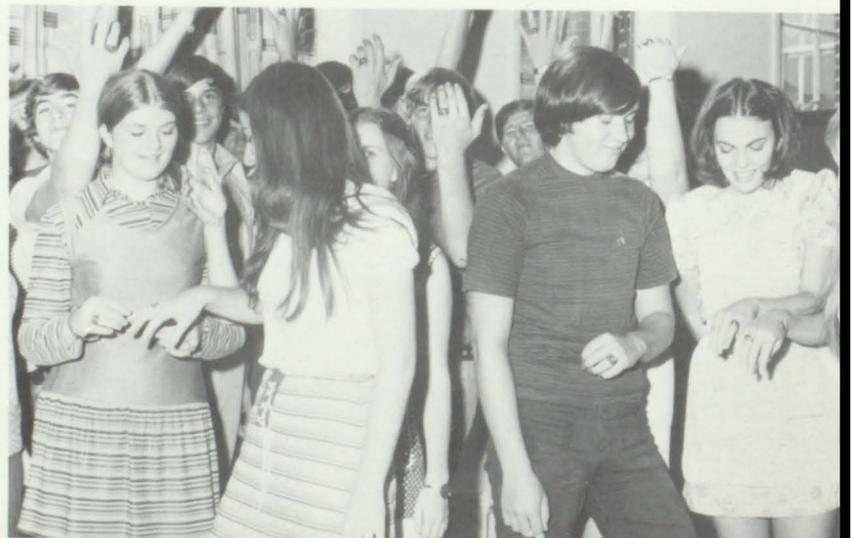

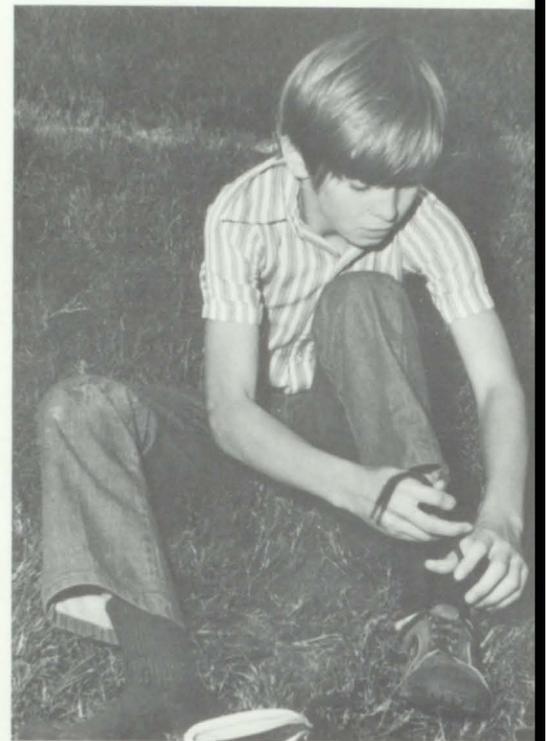

Youth Solves the Complexities of Life

Elementary

Beginning with first grade on through school, a whole new world begins, filled with small, but somehow lasting memories that contribute to the growth of a student. Drawing the best picture in art class, being the only kid who can climb to the top of the gym set, winning the first annual school olympics, or yelling the loudest at a pep rally - all seem to lose significance the day you reach your goal as a senior.

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times, and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun,
Of happy memories I leave
Behind - when day is done.

"The Echoes of Spirit"

Being a cheerleader calls for more than the ordinary amount of school spirit. It also requires patience to face all the problems that befall cheerleaders, such as: ripped seams, forgotten tights, or freezing weather. The 1972-73 Varsity Cheerleaders survived all these to boost school pride and enthusiasm at Fairview.
