Student Life . . . Was

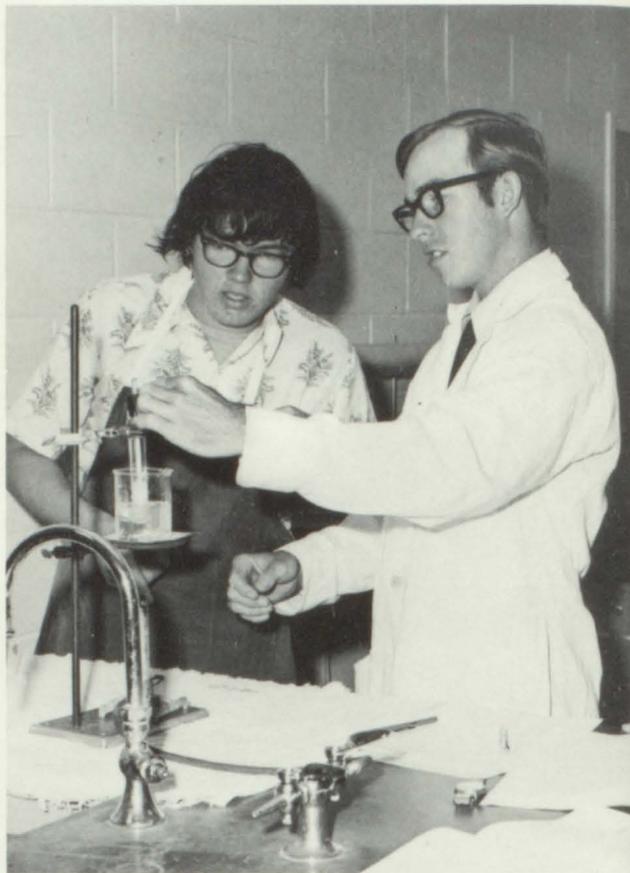

Dedication

Mr. Eddie Dahlke is a very special teacher. He is so dedicated to his job that he willingly sacrifices his time outside teaching hours to be of service to the school. He has the immense responsibility of sponsoring the Key Club, which means attending weekly meetings, running the concession stand for basketball games, and working on projects such as digging potatoes and hauling hay to raise money for the organization.

Mr. Dahlke truly cares about his students, inside the classroom and out. No matter how busy he may be, he takes the time to be a student's friend, to discuss his problems and try to be helpful. He freely shares his personal philosophy on life and tries to guide the students in not only science and math, but also in finding happiness and contentment in their lives. It is for this special devotion to his job that the Fairala Staff respectfully dedicates the 1974-75 annual to Mr. Eddie Dahlke.

Principal

Mr. Donald Jones is almost an institution himself within Fairview School, much loved and respected by students and faculty alike.

Mr. Jones is recognized as a warm, sincere, and caring man, not merely an administrative figurehead. This warm, sincere person is more than a principal who must enforce discipline and deal with the daily problems which arise. He is a man admired and loved by every student who has been fortunate enough to know him for the person he is.

Mrs. Peggy Harris, Lunchroom Accountant
Miss Belinda Craft, Bookkeeper

School Assistants

This group also includes Mrs. Marie Cole and the staff of store workers.

merry-go-rounds and bubble gum under the desk-laughing, running, jumping, climbing, chasing, teasing, pouting shiny red lunch boxes and stuffed shoes-waiting for the schoolbus in the morning and practicing 9x12-day dreaming in a secret place
when times are done...

*Varsity Football Team
Shows Courage*

The varsity football team experienced a season unlike any other. The record stands with 2 wins and 8 losses, but it does not reveal the skill and agility with which they played, nor does it reveal that two of the losses were among the first overtimes of Alabama high school history. The team may have been outscored, but they were seldom outplayed.

The "A" team cheerleaders worked diligently to boost team morale and school spirit by attending summer clinic to learn new cheers, by planning pep rallies, by preparing pre-game meals for the football players, and by cheering their best at every game; the cheerleaders are the voices expressing the feelings of the fans and urging the team to victory.

Varsity "B" Cheerleaders

MASCOT: Teresa McGriff

MISS JUANITA BOWEN

The "B" team cheerleaders exert untold effort to rouse school spirit, but their talent does not lie exclusively in lung power. The squad must lead the students in good sportsmanship; they must bring a unity and closeness to the student body and fans.

Pee Wee Cheerleaders

Being a Pee Wee cheerleader brings many new experiences and emotions, such as the sudden panic before a ballgame, the fun of sharing jokes and silly secrets between the squad, the horror of ripped seams or forgotten tights, the excitement of winning and disappointment of losing. The best of these experiences, though, is the feeling of unity cheerleaders share with the team they support.

SPONSOR: Miss Sharon Drake

Student Life . . . Will Be

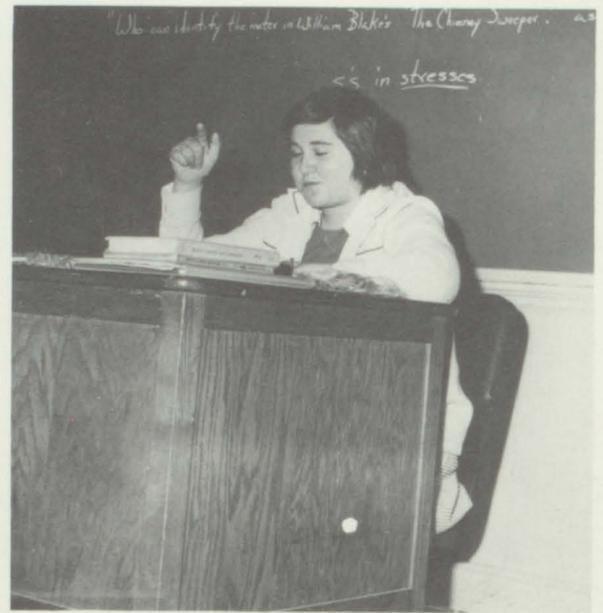

We must not dwell on yesterday's misfortunes, but rather we should think back fondly on the happiness it brought and learn from its mistakes.

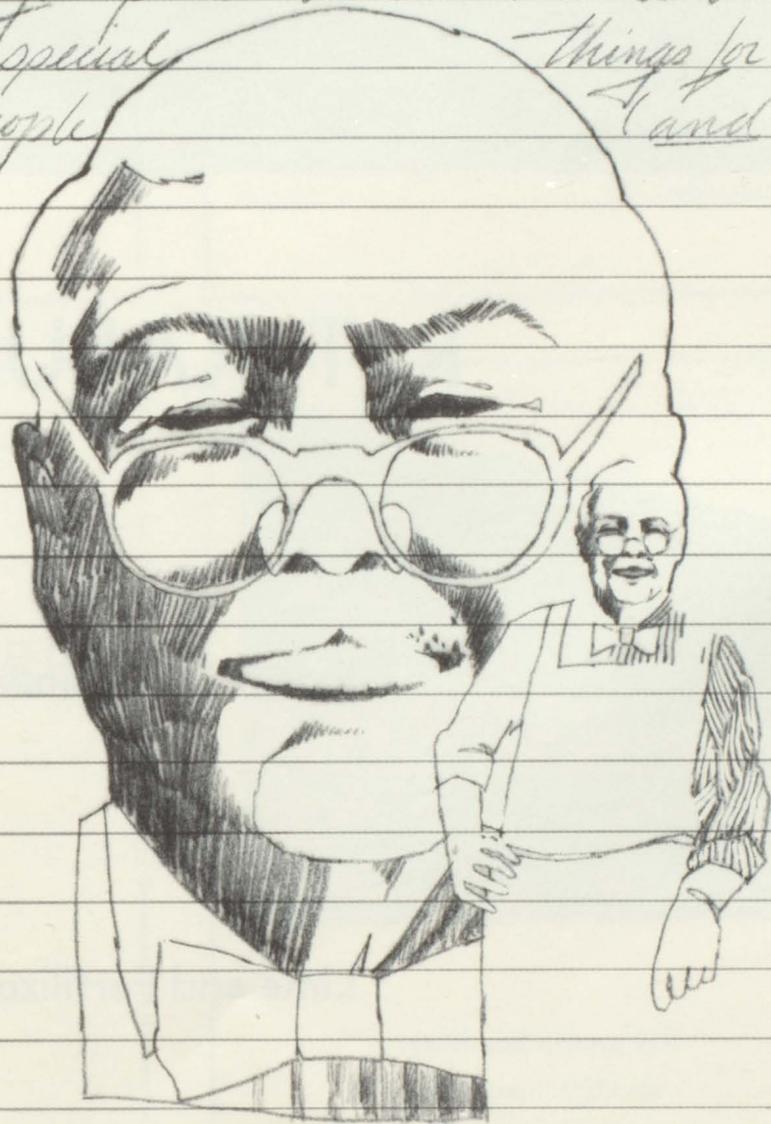

We must live today with all the zest and enthusiasm we possess, making the best of its allotted time, for this moment shall never be again.

We must not look only to the promise of tomorrow. Instead, we must await its coming with quiet anticipation. The best things in life are sometimes free, sometimes unexpected.
