MEMORANDUM

ADVERTISEMENTS

we come into the world alone...

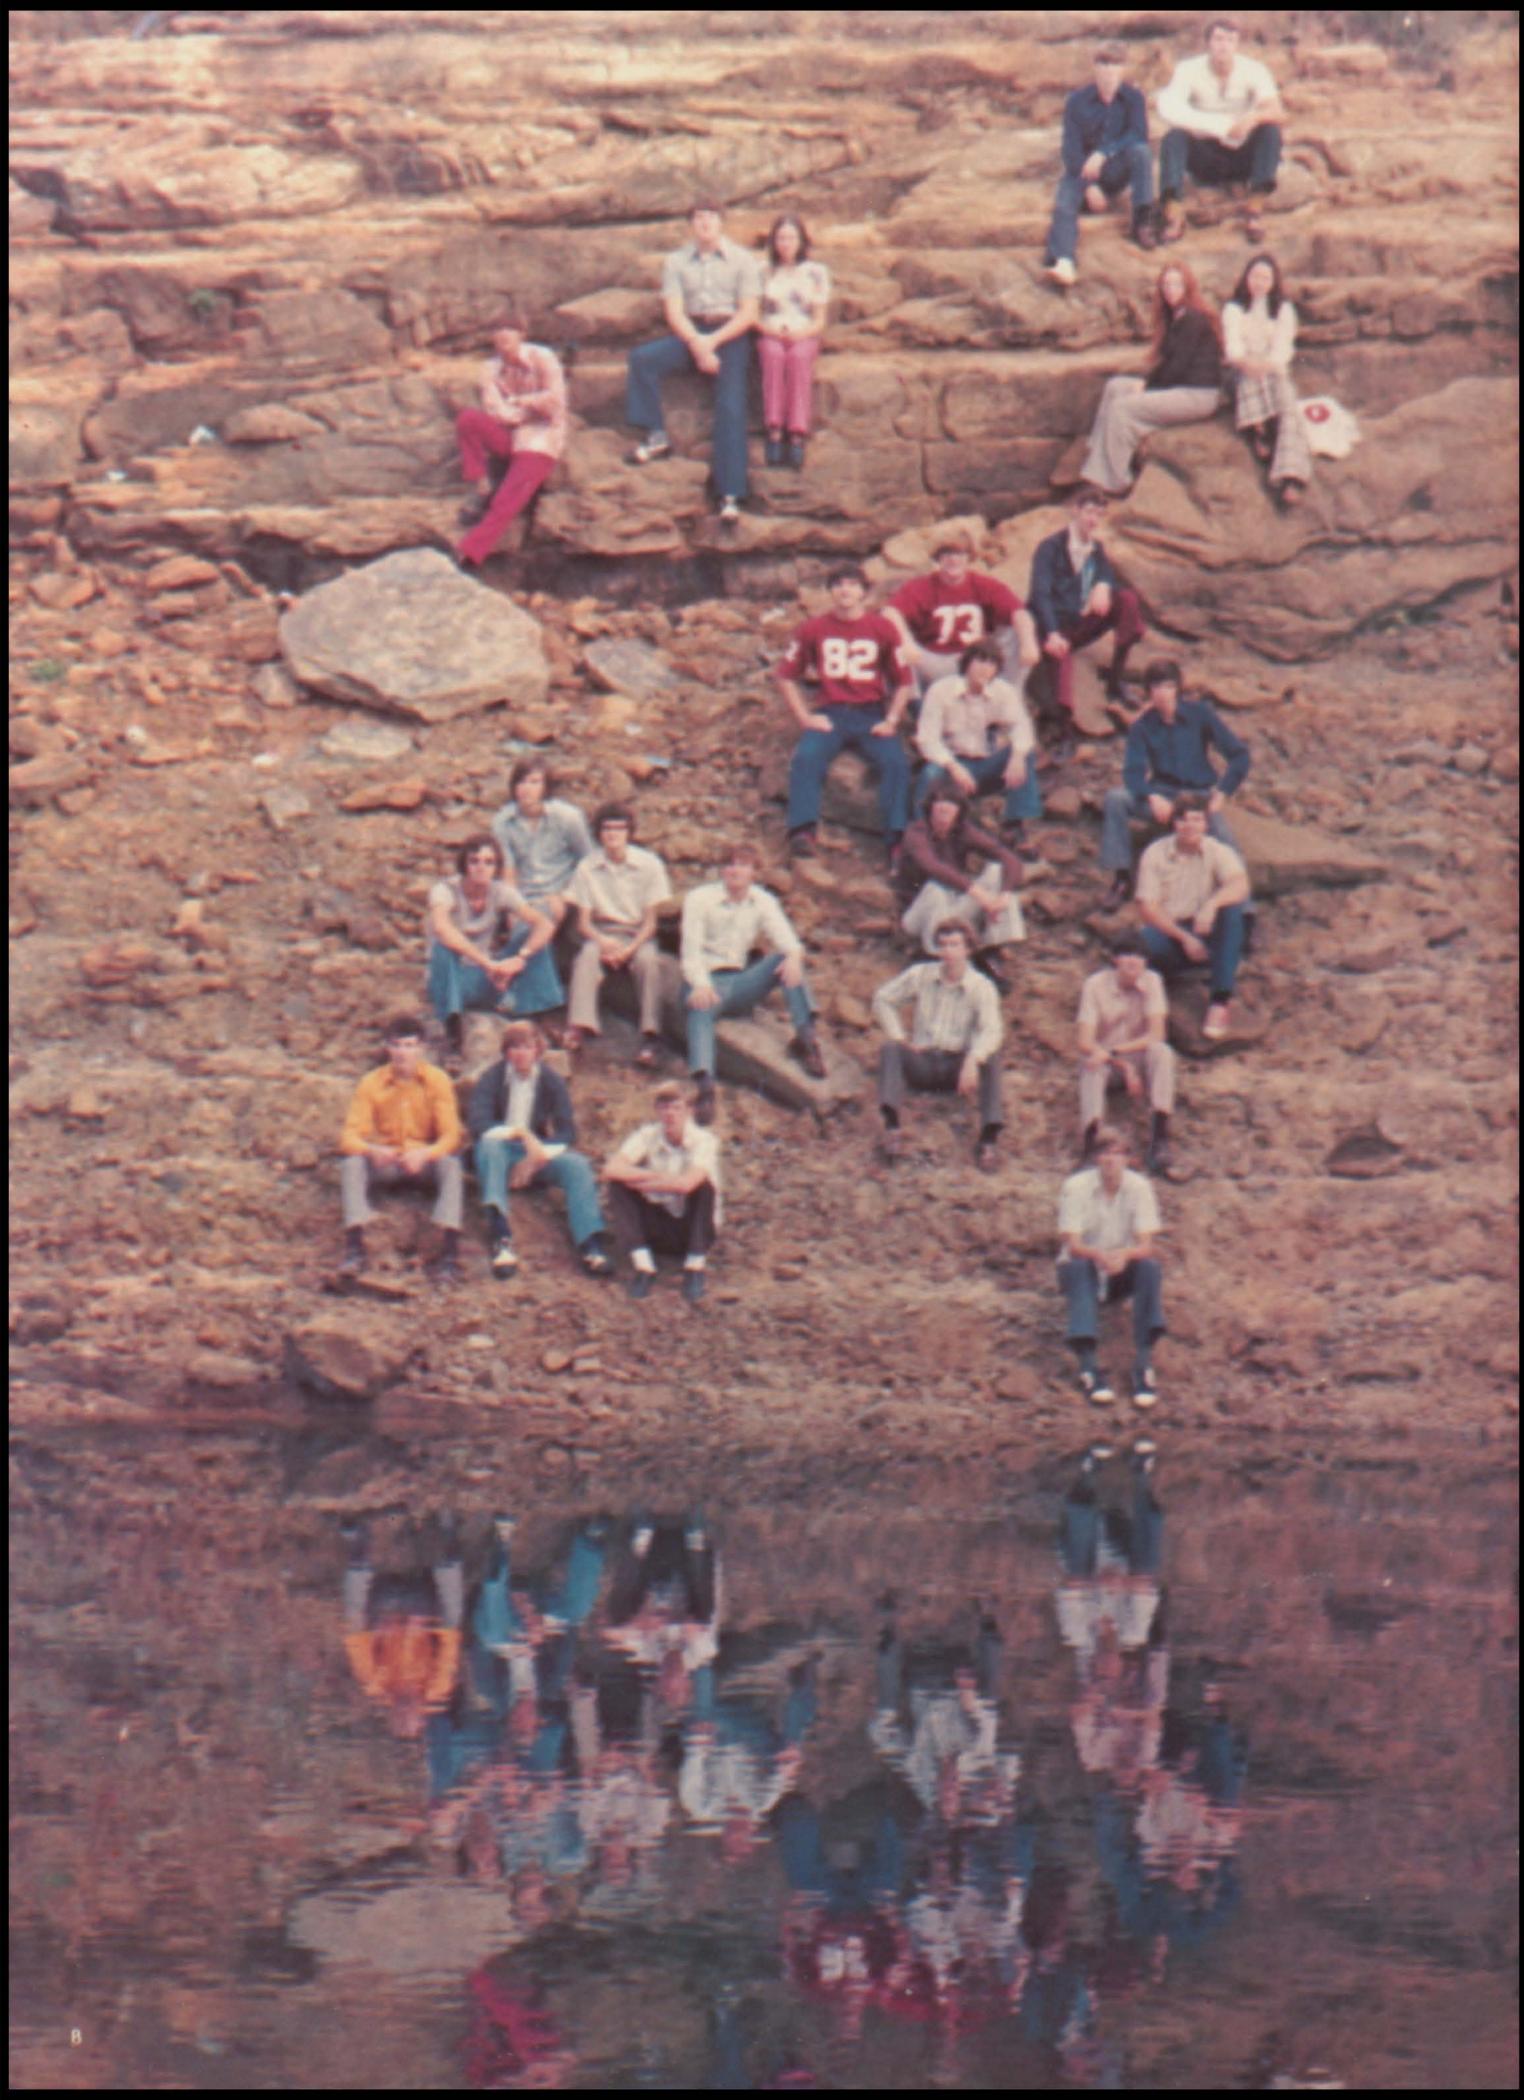

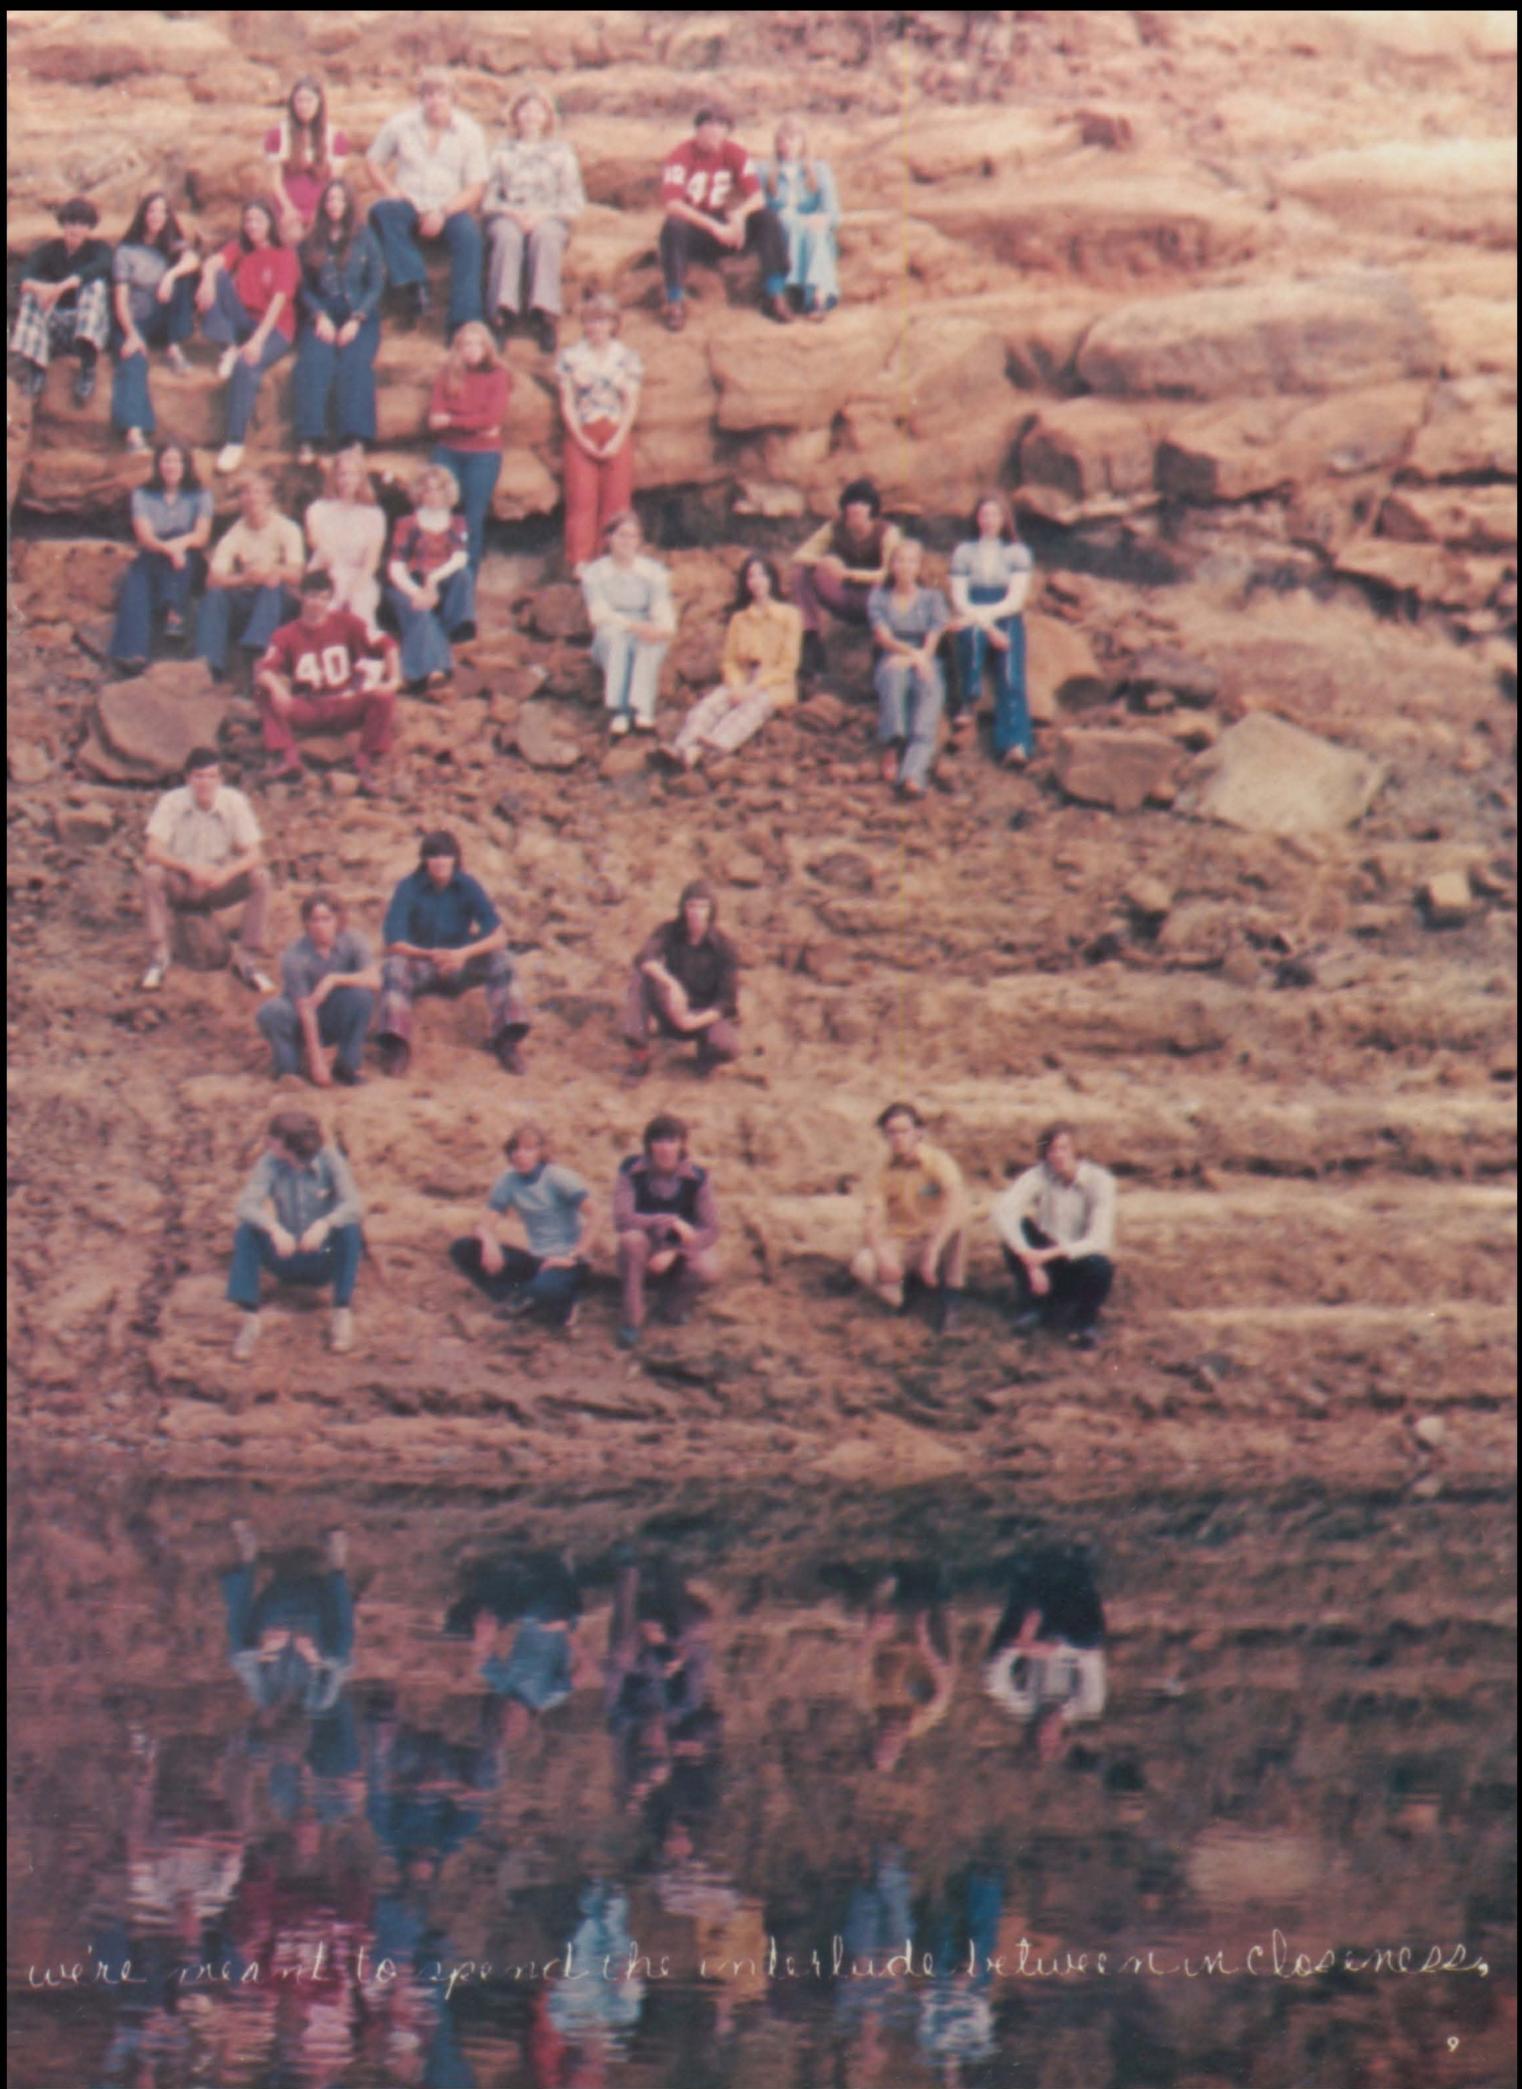

we go away the same.

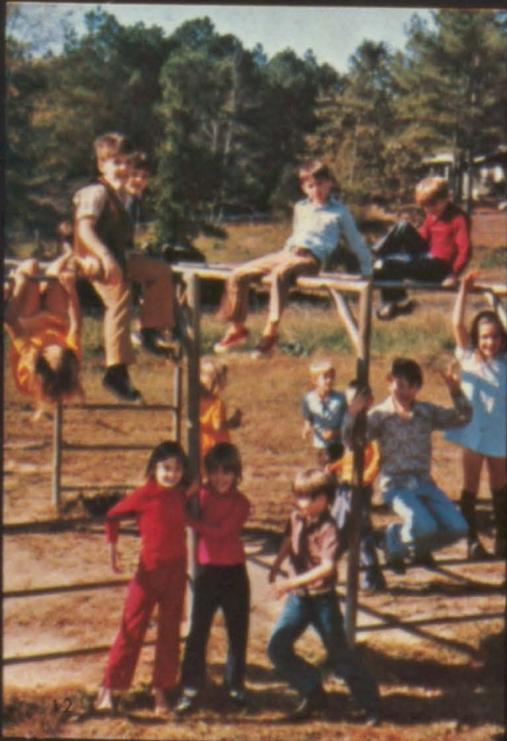

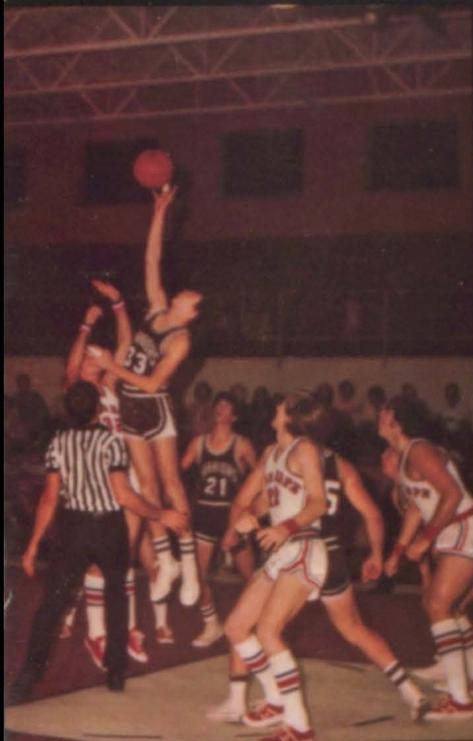

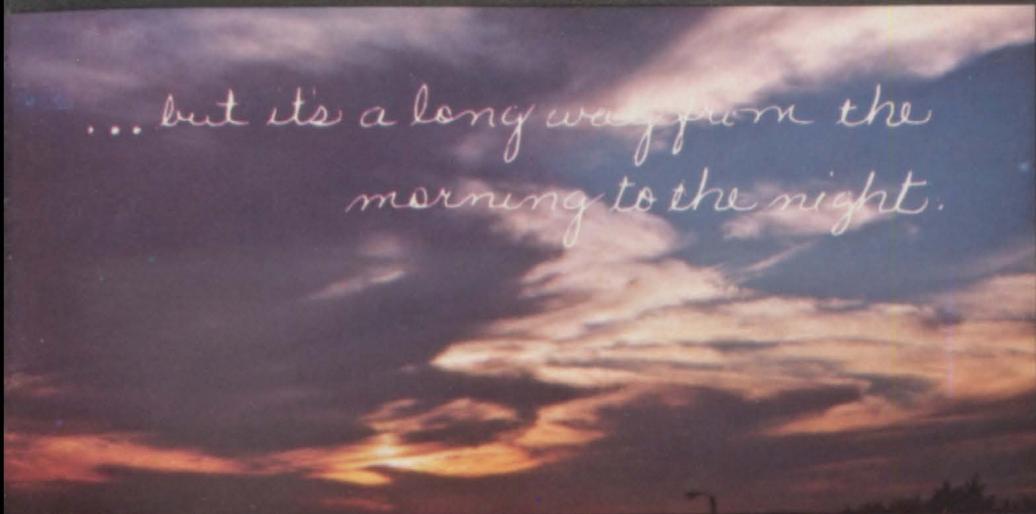

we're meant to spend the interlude between in closeness,

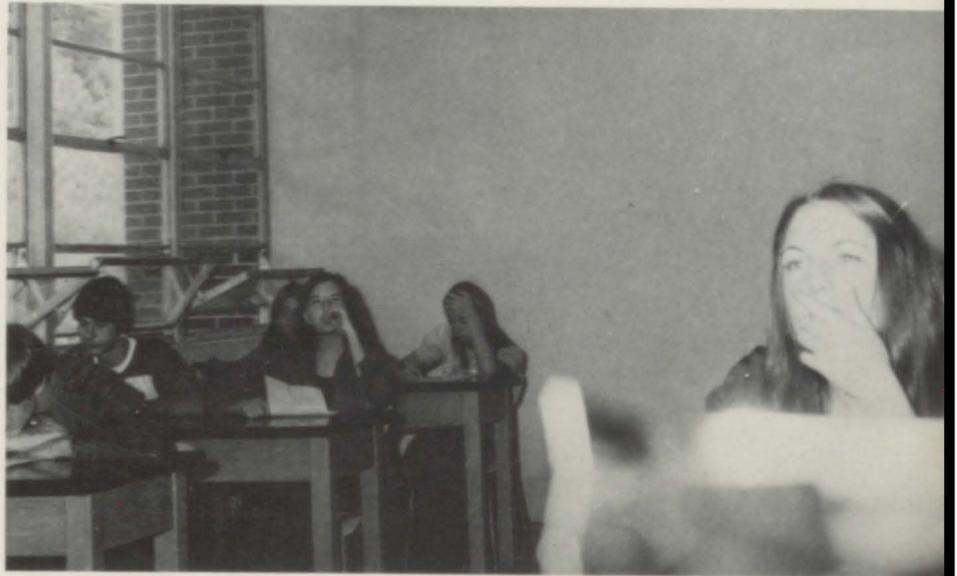

or so we tell ourselves...

Dedication

She is well known and appreciated by many people. She is a person truly dedicated to her position which is a very important one since the education of our children largely determines our citizens of tomorrow. The kind of earnest dedication, she has displayed, deserves a reward. The Heritage Staff would like to express appreciation on behalf of themselves and everyone also by dedicating the 1974 Heritage to long ago a young man sits and plays his waiting game but things are not the same it seems as in such tender dreams slowly passing sailing ships and sunday afternoons

 like people on the moon i see are things not meant to be where do those golden rainbows end?
 why is this song so sad?
 dreaming the dreams i dream
 my friend
 loving the love i love
 to love
 is just a word i've heard when things are being said stories
 my poor head has told me cannot stand the cold and in between what might have been and what has come to pass are misbegotten memories and bits of broken glass where do your golden rainbows end?
 my friend
 to love
 to love to love . . .

 long ago and far away
 james taylor

The words on pages four through fourteen are taken from the book, IN SOMEONE'S SHADOW, by poet Rod McKuen.

I would like to thank Mr. Jimmy Elmore of Taylor Publishing Company for his help and infinite patience throughout the year. Heaven knows we needed it.
