ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL JAMES LAMINACK

As you prepare to enter the world outside your school family, it is my hope that you will remember and use the influences which have affected your life through your school years. Let every experience be a learning one; don't dwell on past mistakes, but always learn from them; and always add to your education — this is not an end but a beginning.

Dedication and Retirement

All of us at Hanceville School extend our congratulations and gratitude to Mr. Hue Smith for his years of service to the students, the community and to our profession.

The contributions he has made to the lives of so many young people have given them a solid foundation upon which to build. He has been an excellent and inspiring part of our faculty.

We hope that Mr. Hue Smith will find great satisfaction in the retirement activities he has planned, and that he will utilize his well-deserved leisure to pursue his many interests.

The 1985-86 Senior Class Proudly dedicates it's annual to
MR. HUE SMITH

In Appreciation

The Hanceville School faculty, students and staff extend their sincerest appreciation to Mrs. Lena Thrift. Mrs. Thrift has served as "homeroom mother" for almost all of our students for many years. We appreciate the time she has given the students as well as the teachers. The pride Mrs. Thrift shows in Hanceville School is evident by her unselfish involvement in our many activities.
