

WARRIOR

1969

A young man is sitting cross-legged on a forest floor covered in pine needles. He is wearing a brown, fringed tunic and pants. On his head is a headdress with a white band and several large feathers, some of which are painted orange and blue. He has blue face paint around his eyes and on his chin. The background is a dense forest of tall, thin trees.

West Point High School

Cullman, Alabama

Volume 18

This is West Point.

The faces are many and varied, but they reflect you, the student body.

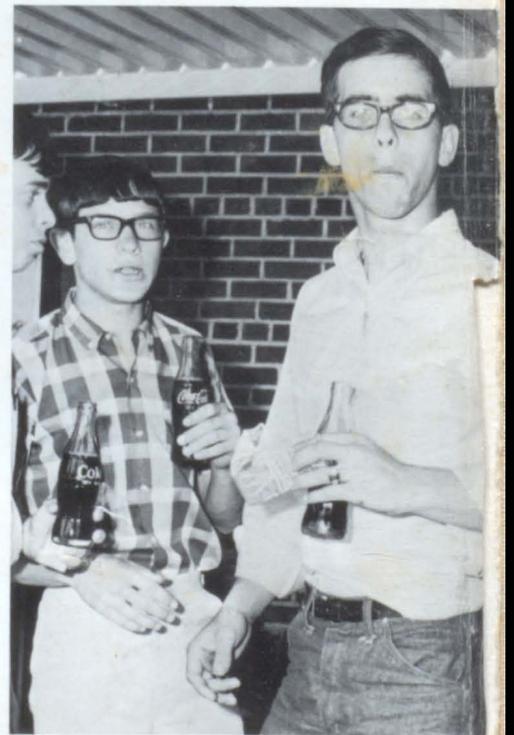

This yearbook has attempted to portray, in pictures and words, your lives as you have lived them during this school year.

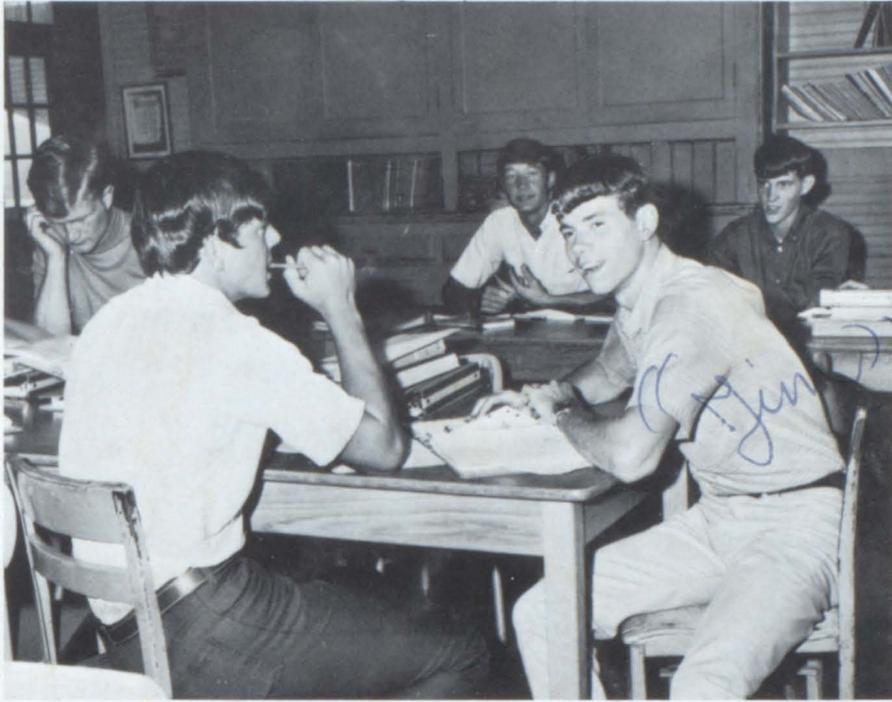

We, the annual staff, feel that if you have one moment of enjoyment from this yearbook, our year has been worthwhile.

We hope you feel THE WARRIOR 1969 has succeeded as well as the volumes which have gone before.

... 79 Organizations ... 111 Athletics ... 143

I would like to commend and compliment the Annual Staff and Sponsor for this year's very fine annual. Your care in planning and your diligence in carrying out those plans in minute detail have contributed toward the successful production of West Point's finest yearbook.

This yearbook is truly a keepsake to be treasured and cherished by the seniors and all other subscribers to it. It is a "break through" in annual production at West Point.

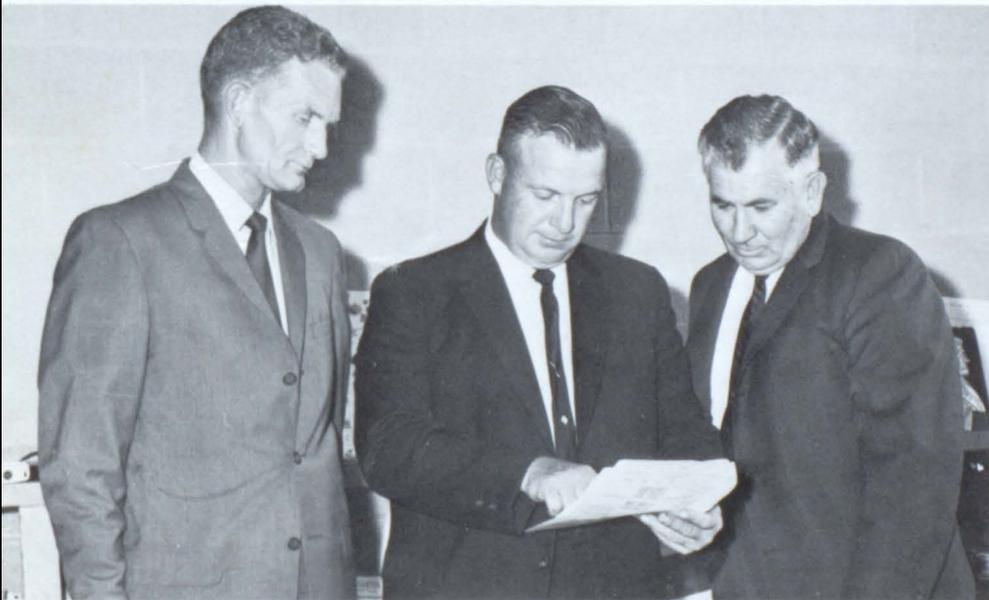

It is my wish that you get many years of enjoyment and pleasure from this publication.

Dedication

The Warrior Staff proudly dedicates the 1969 Yearbook to a person we all respect and admire. We are very grateful to her for all she had contributed to West Point and the girls' athletic program.

She has proven herself to be a kind and sincere person, a devoted teacher, and a loyal friend.

Because of the importance of her many attributes, we wish to pay tribute by dedicating the 1969 WARRIOR to you,

MRS. SUE RHODES

Brenda Lake represented West Point in the 1968 Miss Pioneer Pageant.

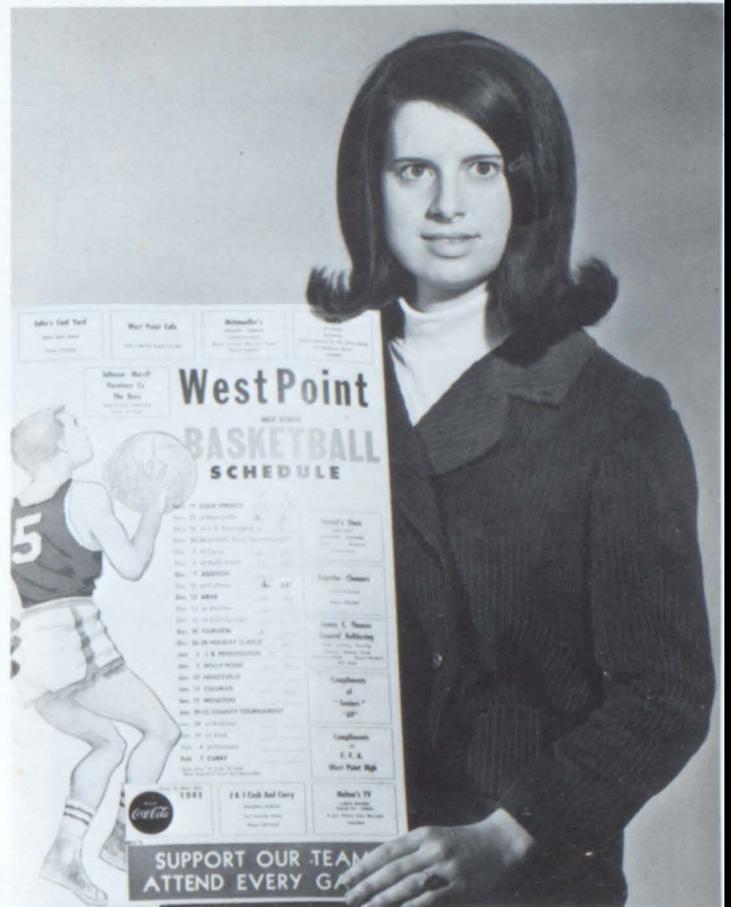

David Heaven was one of fifty students selected from the state to attend the Summer Mathematics Project at Stillman College in Tuscaloosa last summer. As a result of the Alabama Mathematics Talent Search, David participated in the eight weeks of math research.

This warrior head was painted in the gym by a senior, David Braswell.

Dwight Bibb was top salesman in the annual senior magazine sales.

Libby Calvert was chosen by the basketball boys as the 1969 Basketball Sweetheart.

As their project, the 1969 seniors voted to paint the gym, paint a warrior head on the gym wall, and erect a marquee sign on the front lawn of the campus.

The painters finished the gym after a week and David Braswell completed the warrior head after three days. Now, as the end of the year draws near, the seniors anxiously await the completion of their class project with the erection of the marquee sign.

Deborah Moody received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award.

Junior Honors

Glen Glover and Flavin Williams were selected as West Point's Outstanding Teenagers of America.

Jamie Thomas, West Point's first place oratorical winner, represented our school in the County Oratorical Contest.

Hilda Rodgers won first place in the 1968 County Typing Contest in Typing I Division

Becky Lay and Glen Glover were selected Junior Good Citizenship Girl and Boy by faculty committee.

Action on the hill!

My one accomplishment at school - a shoe shine.

Some of us have it, some of us don't.

Give me the cheat sheet before he sees it.

Glamour is where you find it.

What excuse can we use this time?
