

"The Library in Hanceville provides me with books and videos. My kids enjoy the summer programs, and my husband uses the Internet to email his office. It's like a fun house, bookstore and business center all rolled into one."

Over 30,000 Cullman Countians enjoy the free services provided by their public libraries, and you can too. September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month. Get yours and gift when you sign up at any Cullman County Public Library this month. Just bring your ID and proof of address.
