

"My teacher
likes me to go
to the library
in the summer.
She says I
come back to school ready to read.

I just like all the fun."

Cullman County's public libraries have changed lives since 1928. From supporting business and stimulating economic development to providing great reading resources to encouraging kids to enjoy learning, CCPLS improves the county's quality of life.

Over 30,000 Cullman Countians have the smartest card in the world right in their own pockets, and you can too! September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month. Get yours and gift when you sign up at any Cullman County Public Library this month. Just bring your ID and proof of address.
